SENATE FILE 567

1 Amend Senate File 567 by adding the following new 2 section:

3 Section 4. A. Services to be offered. The State
4 Department of Social Welfare shall provide, pay for,
5 and offer family planning and birth control services
6 to every parent or married person who is a public
7 assistance recipient.

8 B. Extent of services. Such family planning and 9 birth control services shall include interview with 10 trained personnel; distribution of literature; referral

21 D. Services may be refused. The refusal of any person

25 and every person to whom such services are offered shall be 26 so advised initially both orally and in writing. Employees 27 engaged in the administration of this section shall recognize 28 that the right to make decisions concerning family planning 29 and birth control is a fundamental personal right of the 30 individual and nothing in this article shall in any way
31 abridge such individual right, nor shall any individual 32 be required to state his reason for refusing the offer of 33 family planning and birth control services.

34 E. In all cases where the recipient does not speak or 35 read the English language, the services shall not be given

38 F. This article shall be liberally construed to protect 39 the rights of all individuals to pursue their religious beliefs 40 and to follow the dictates of their own conscience, and to 42 offensive to the individual's moral standards.

43 G. The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and
