30 "Sec. 5. Not less than three hundred thousand (300,000)
31 dollars of the sum appropriated in this Act for aid to depen-32 dent children shall be used for the community work and 33 training program as provided in sections six (6) through 34 twenty-two (22), inclusive, of this Act.

35 "Sec. 6. Chapter two hundred thirty-nine (239), Code 1966, 36 is hereby amended by adding sections seven (7) through twenty-37 two (22) of this Act.

38 "Sec. 7. The state board, with the cooperation of county
39 boards and departments of social welfare, shall establish a
40 community work and training program for individuals who have 41 attained the age of eighteen (18) and who are members of 42 families receiving aid to dependent children. The program
43 shall encourage the development of work skills and work
44 habits, the conservation of work skills, and the preparation
45 of such persons for self-supporting employment.

46 "Sec. 8. The program shall include useful work or job
47 training or both. The work or job training may be provided
48 by public or private agencies, organizations, or companies.

49 "Sec. 9. Any member of a family receiving aid to dependent
50 children shall be required to participate in the community
51 work and training program as a condition of receiving such 52 assistance, if:

53 "1. Such person has attained the age of eighteen (18)
54 years and has not attained the age of sixty-five (65) years;

55 "2. Such participation would not unreasonably interfere
56 with such person's child care responsibilities in the home; 57 and

58 "3. Suitable and non-hazardous work or job training is 59 available or can be arranged.

60 "However, a person shall not be required to participate if 61 he presents satisfactory medical evidence that he is unable to 62 participate or that his health would be endangered by such 63 participation.

64 "Sec. 10. The work performed shall serve a useful purpose
65 and, except for an emergency or a project of a nonrecurring
66 nature, shall not displace nor adversely affect regular 67 employees of public or private agencies, organizations or 68 companies.

69 "Sec. 11. The state board shall enter into cooperative
70 arrangements with the state employment service for maximum 71 utilization of that agency's services for the assignment of 72 eligible individuals to a suitable training program or assist-
73 ing them in finding suitable regular employment, including
74 registration and periodic reregistration for employment.

75 "Sec. 12. The state board shall enter into cooperative
76 arrangements with state and local agencies responsible for
77 administering or supervising vocational education and adult
78 education, for maximum utilization of their services and 79 facilities for education, training, retraining, or other
80 preparation of eligible individuals for regular employment.

81 "Sec. 13. Each eligible individual, with respect to work
82 performed under the provisions of this chapter, shall be 83 covered by the workmen's compensation law or otherwise pro-
84 vided with comparable protection.

85 "Sec. 14. The state board shall establish and maintain
86 appropriate standards for health, safety, and other conditions
87 applicable to such work and training.

88 "Sec. 15. If any compensation is received by the indivi-89 dual for such work, all or part of such compensation shall be 90 applied to reduce the cost of public assistance to such 91 individual or his family, under policies established by the 92 state board.

93 "Sec. 16. In determining the need of a family for assis-
94 tance, consideration shall be given to any additional expenses
95 reasonably attributable to such work and training.

96 "Sec. 17. Eligible individuals shall be given reasonable
97 opportunity and shall be encouraged to seek regular employment
98 and to secure any appropriate education, training, or retrain-
99 ing which may be available.

100 "Sec. 18. Appropriate arrangements shall be made to assure 101 the care and protection of children during the absence from 102 the home of an individual participating in such work or train-103 ing.

104 "Sec. 19. Eligible individuals and their families shall 105 be offered such other agency and community services for their 106 well-being as they would otherwise receive, and shall be 107 treated no less favorably with respect to the furnishing of 108 assistance and social services than any other recipient of 109 aid to dependent children.

110 "Sec. 20. If it is finally determined that any provision 111 of this Act would cause such program to be ineligible for 112 federal financial assistance, such provision shall be suspend-113 ed to the extent which is essential to obtain such assistance.

114 "Sec. 21. The state board may negotiate for and accept 115 any grants, gifts, or other monies on behalf of the state for 116 the purpose of assisting in the financing of the program 117 authorized in sections six (6) through twenty-two (22) of 118 this Act. All funds, grants, gifts, and monies so received 119 shall be deposited with the state treasurer and shall be 120 disbursed in accordance with the provisions of sections six 121 (6) through twenty-two (22) of this Act.

122 "Sec. 22. The state board shall adopt rules and regula-
123 tions to implement sections six (6) through twenty-two (22)
124 of this Act and to achieve its purposes."

1 Amend House File 687 as follows:

2 1. Add the following new sections at the end thereof:

3 "Sec. 5. Five hundred thousand (500,000) dollars of the 4 sum appropriated in this Act for aid to dependent children
5 fund shall be used for the community work and training 6 program as provided in sections six (6) through twenty-two 7 (22), inclusive, of this Act.

8 "Sec. 6. Chapter two hundred thirty-nine (239), Code
9 1966, is hereby amended by adding sections seven (7) through 10 twenty-two (22) of this Act.

11 "Sec. 7. The state board, with the cooperation of county
12 boards and departments of social welfare, shall establish a
13 community work and training program for individuals who have 14 attained the age of eighteen (18) and who are members of
15 families receiving aid to dependent children. The program
16 shall encourage the development of work skills and work
17 habits, the conservation of work skills, and the preparation
18 of such persons for self-supporting employment.

19 "Sec. 8. The program shall include useful work or job
20 training or both. The work or job training may be provided
21 by public or private agencies, organizations, or companies.

22 "Sec. 9. Any member of a family receiving aid to dependent
23 children shall be required to participate in the community
24 work and training program as a condition of receiving such 25 assistance, if:

26 "1. Such person has attained the age of eighteen (18) years
27 and has not attained the age of sixty-five (65) years;

28 "2. Such participation would not unreasonably interfere 29 with such person's child care responsibilities in the home; and

30 "3. Suitable and non-hazardous work or job training is 31 available or can be arranged.

32 "However, a person shall not be required to participate if 33 he presents satisfactory medical evidence that he is unable 34 to participate or that his health would be endangered by such 35 participation.

36 "Sec. 10. The work performed shall serve a useful purpose
37 and, except for an emergency or a project of a nonrecurring
38 nature, shall not displace nor adversely affect regular 39 employees of public or private agencies, organizations or 40 companies.

41 "Sec. 11. The state board shall enter into cooperative
42 arrangements with the state employment service for maximum
43 utilization of that agency's services for the assignment of 44 eligible individuals to a suitable training program or assist-
45 ing them in finding suitable regular employment, including
46 registration and periodic reregistration for employment.

47 "Sec. 12. The state board shall enter into cooperative
48 arrangements with state and local agencies responsible for
49 administering or supervising vocational education and adult
50 education, for maximum utilization of their services and
51 facilities for education, training, retraining, or other
52 preparation of eligible individuals for regular employment.

53 "Sec. 13. Each eligible individual, with respect to work
54 performed under the provisions of this chapter, shall be 55 covered by the workmen's compensation law or otherwise 56 provided with comparable protection.

57 "Sec. 14. The state board shall establish and maintain
58 appropriate standards for health, safety, and other conditions
59 applicable to such work and training.

60 "Sec. 15. If any compensation is received by the individual
61 for such work, all or part of such compensation shall be applied 62 to reduce the cost of public assistance to such individual or 63 his family, under policies established by the state board.
