EXPLANATION

This bill transfers the remaining unencumbered balance of the 1967 appropriation for construction of the Eagle Ridge Rehabilitation Center at Anamosa, which is believed to be somewhat in excess of $3,000,000 to supplement the appropriation for old age assistance during the current biennium. The old age assistance caseload has unexpectedly risen during the past several months, and the appropriation originally made for the 1969-1971 biennium will not be sufficient to meet the higher caseload without reducing the present monthly grants to recipients.

It is the belief of the present administration of the Department of Social Services that development of a series of new regional detention centers would be preferable to construction of a new medium security facility at Anamosa.

15 used for the incarceration and rehabilitation of persons serv-
16 ing sentences in or sentenced to any state penal or correctional
17 facility or county jail in this state whose needs the commis-
18 sioner of social services or his designee concludes would best

EXPLANATION

This bill transfers the remaining unencumbered balance of the 1967 appropriation for construction of the Eagle Ridge Rehabilitation Center at Anamosa, which is believed to be somewhat in excess of $3,000,000, to supplement the appropriation for old age assistance during the current biennium. The old age assistance caseload has unexpectedly risen during the past several months, and the appropriation originally made for the 1969-1971 biennium will not be sufficient to meet the higher caseload without reducing the present monthly grants to recipients.

It is the belief of the present administration of the Department of Social Services that development of a series of new regional detention centers would be preferable to construction of a new medium security facility at Anamosa.
