1 Section 1. Section two hundred thirty-one point eight
2 (231.8), unnumbered paragraphs one (1), two (2), and four (4),
3 Code 1971, are amended as follows:

4 "The judge designated as judge of the juvenile court in any 5 county, or where there is more than one judge designated such 6 judges acting jointly, may appoint such probation officers as 7 may be necessary to carry out the work of the court. In coun-
8 ties where more than one officer is appointed one of such offi-
9 cers shall be designated as chief probation officer. The 10 salaries ~~of such officers~~ shall be fixed by the judge or judges
11 making the appointments, subject to the approval of the board
12 of supervisors, but in no case shall the salary of a chief pro-
13 bation officer exceed seventy percent of the salary of the dis-
14 trict court judge nor shall the salary of a deputy probation
15 officer exceed sixty percent of the salary of such judge."

16 "Probation officers may be appointed to serve two or more
17 counties. The salaries of such officers and their deputies,
18 if any, shall be fixed by the judges of the judicial district
19 containing such counties, subject to the approval of the boards
20 of supervisors, and such salaries and the expenses of the pro-21 bation offices shall be prorated among the counties served in 22 such proportion as may be determined by said judges who shall 23 in making such determination, consider the volume of work in 24 the several counties. Such officers may be paid not to exceed 25 sixty percent of the salary of a district court judge."

26 "Such secretarial and clerical help as may be needed in the 27 administration of any probation office may be appointed by the 28 judge or judges of the juvenile court who may fix their salar-29 ies, subject to the approval of the board of supervisors, at 30 not more than forty percent of the salary of a district court
31 judge."

32 Sec. 2. Section two hundred thirty-one point twelve (231.12),
33 Code 1971, is amended as follows:

34 231.12 SALARIES--EXPENSES--HOW PAID. The judges making the 35 appointments shall fix the salaries of all appointees, subject

1 to the approval of the board of supervisors, at not exceeding
2 the amount authorized by law. All appointees shall serve dur-
3 ing the pleasure of such judges, and in addition to salaries
4 shall receive their necessary and actual expenses incurred
5 while performing their duties. For use of an automobile in the 6 discharge of their duties within the particular county or coun-
7 ties for which they are appointed such officers may receive the 8 mileage rate provided by law, or, in lieu thereof, they may 9 receive a monthly allowance in such amounts as the judge or 10 judges of the juvenile court may determine and order. For use 11 of an automobile outside the county or counties for which they 12 have been appointed such officers shall be paid the regular 13 mileage rate. All salaries and expenses shall be paid by the 14 county either from the general county fund or from the court
15 expense fund.

16 EXPLANATION

17 This bill provides that the salaries of probation offices
18 and staff will be subject to approval by the county board of 19 supervisors. Under present law judges set the salaries at 20 whatever amount they desire and the county must pay the salary.
