1 Section 1. Section one hundred nine point sixty-one
2 (109.61), Code 1975, is amended to read as follows:

3 109.61 LICENSE TO POSSESS. A licensed game breeder may
4 hold in possession at any time any game bird, game animal
5 or fur-bearing animal raised by him or obtained from without 6 the state or from a licensed game breeder within the state.
7 Such licensee may buy, sell, or otherwise dispose of such
8 game birds, game animals, fur-bearing animals, or any part
9 thereof. Possession and use of such game birds, game animals
10 or fur-bearing animals obtained from a licensed game breeder
11 shall be deemed lawful, provided that no game birds or game
12 animals so obtained may be sold for food, except under the 13 following conditions: Upon filing with the state conservation
14 commission a facsimile of a stamp of similar type to that
15 used by the United States department of agriculture in grading
16 meat, licensed game breeders may sell dressed pheasants game
17 birds or game animals to markets for resale providing each
18 pheasant game bird or game animal has affixed in a conspicuous
19 and legible manner the imprint of such stamp. Such stamps
20 shall bear the name and license number of the game breeder
21 in letters of at least twelve-point type size.

22 Markets selling such stamped pheasants game shall main-
23 tain the stamp on each and-every-pheasant game bird or game
24 animal until finally sold or disposed of. All markets selling
25 such stamped pheasants game birds or game animals shall keep
26 a record showing the total number of pheasants game birds
27 or game animals sold together with the name and address of 28 the game breeder from whom purchased and the number of 29 pheasants game birds and game animals in each such purchase.
30 Markets retailing such stamped pheasants game, together with 31 their records, shall be subject to inspection by any authorized
32 representative of the state conservation commission at any 33 reasonable hour.

34 Violation of the provisions of this section shall con-
35 stitute a misdemeanor and punishment shall be as provided

1 for in section 109.32.

2 EXPLANATION

3 This bill allows a licensed game breeder to sell game birds
4 or game animals as food. Present law provides that only
5 pheasants raised by game breeders may be sold as food.

AN ACT
RELATING TO THE SALE OF GAME BY A GAME BREEDER FOR FOOD PURPOSES.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF IOWA:

Section 1. Section one hundred nine point sixty-one (109.61), Code 1975, is amended to read as follows:

109.61 LICENSE TO POSSESS. A licensed game breeder may hold in possession at any time any game bird, game animal or fur-bearing animal raised by him or obtained from without the state or from a licensed game breeder within the state. Such licensee may buy, sell, or otherwise dispose of such game birds, game animals, fur-bearing animals, or any part thereof. Possession and use of such game birds, game animals or fur-bearing animals obtained from a licensed game breeder shall be deemed lawful, provided that no game birds or game animals so obtained may be sold for food, except under the following conditions: Upon filing with the state conservation commission a facsimile of a stamp of similar type to that used by the United States department of agriculture in grading meat, licensed game breeders may sell dressed pheasants game birds or game animals to markets for resale providing each pheasant game bird or game animal has affixed in a conspicuous and legible manner the imprint of such stamp. Such stamps shall bear the name and license number of the game breeder in letters of at least twelve-point type size.

Markets selling such stamped pheasants game shall maintain the stamp on each and-every-pheasant game bird or game animal until finally sold or disposed of. All markets selling such stamped pheasants game birds or game animals shall keep a record showing the total number of pheasants game birds or game animals sold together with the name and address of the game breeder from whom purchased and the number of pheasants game birds and game animals in each such purchase.

Markets retailing such stamped pheasants game, together with their records, shall be subject to inspection by any authorized representative of the state conservation commission at any reasonable hour.

Violation of the provisions of this section shall constitute a misdemeanor and punishment shall be as provided for in section 109.32.
