10 the supreme court may appoint an advisory salary committee.

11 EXPLANATION

12 This bill eliminates the statutory limitations on the 13 salaries of juvenile court employees, and provides that 14 salaries shall be set by the district judges within the 15 respective judicial districts. This bill differs from L.S.B.
16 1393, in that it does not provide temporary increases in the 17 salary ceilings, and further in that this bill requires
18 district judges rather than juvenile court judges to establish 19 the salaries.
