S. 2235

1 Section 1. Notwithstanding section 455A.17, the Iowa
2 natural resources council may enter into a binding contract 3 on behalf of this state with the federal government for the 4 acquisition of storage in Saylorville reservoir for municipal 5 and industrial water supply if the council also enters into 6 binding contracts on behalf of this state with the local water
7 users who will benefit from the storage so that all costs
8 incurred by this state in its contract with the federal 9 government are borne by those local water users.

10 Sec. 2. This Act, being deemed of immediate importance,
11 takes effect from and after its publication in The Chariton
12 Leader, a newspaper published in Chariton, Iowa, and in The 13 Sun-Hawkeye-Record-Herald, a newspaper published in Mount 14 Vernon, Iowa.

15 EXPLANATION

16 This bill authorizes the Iowa natural resources council 17 to enter into a contract with the federal government for 18 storage in Saylorville reservoir for municipal and industrial 19 water supply if the council also enters into contracts with 20 benefited local water users that provide that the local water 21 users will bear the costs of the contract with the federal 22 government.

23 The bill takes effect upon publication.
