1 Section 1. NEW SECTION. 476.4A EXEMPTION FROM TARIFF
2 FILINGS FOR TELEPHONE UTILITIES. Notwithstanding contrary
3 provisions of this chapter, a telephone utility may offer
4 centron, centrex, intraexchange private line, or multiline
5 variety package service without filing a tariff unless the 6 commission determines such a procedure is not in the public
7 interest. The telephone utility shall offer each service
8 which is exempt from a tariff filing at a rate which exceeds 9 the cost of the service. A telephone utility offering its 10 services without filing a tariff shall not discriminate in 11 an unreasonable manner for or against any customer.

12 A telephone utility shall provide the commission with at 13 least thirty days notice prior to a request to offer service
14 without filing a tariff. The commission may require the 15 telephone utility to file its price lists, contracts, or cost 16 allocations for services offered without a tariff. Any such 17 price lists, contracts, or cost allocations so filed shall 18 be afforded rebuttable presumptions that they meet the 19 requirements of section 68A.7, subsection 6.

20 The commission shall consider the revenues, expenses and 21 investment related to telephone utility services offered
22 without a filed tariff in proceedings under section 476.3, 23 476.6 and 476.7.

24 Sec. 2. This Act, being deemed of immediate importance,
25 takes effect from and after its publication in the Jasper
26 County Tribune, a newspaper published in Colfax, Iowa, and 27 in The Sunday Nonpareil, a newspaper published in Council
28 Bluffs, Iowa.

29 EXPLANATION

30 This bill allows telephone utilities to offer centron,
31 centrex, intraexchange private line or multiline variety
32 package service without filing a tariff with the Iowa state 33 commerce commission unless the commission determines such 34 a procedure is not in the public interest.

35 The bill takes effect upon its publication.
