EXPLANATION

3 The bill includes other units of government, and 4 governments and traditional organizations of recognized
5 American Indian tribes in Iowa in the list of those eligible
6 to receive historical resource grants and loans; and provides 7 that a portion of the applicant's operating expenses may be 8 used as cash match or in-kind match as specified by the 9 division's rules. Not more than 20 percent of the total grant
10 moneys combined shall be given to or received by state
11 agencies and institutions, or their representatives or agents.

12 The bill provides that grants and loans in the historic 13 preservation category are restricted to a city or county 14 government approved as a certified local government by the 15 state historic preservation officer.

16 The bill broadens the list of recipients who must provide 17 matching funds to include all units of government.
