20 Sec. 3. If a vacancy in the general assembly occurs or 21 exists after the effective date of this Act, at a time which 22 makes it necessary to fill the vacancy at a special election
23 held pursuant to section 69.14, the vacancy shall be filled
24 from the same district provided in chapter 41, Code 1991, that
25 elected the senator or representative whose seat is vacant.
26 This does not apply if a special election is not required
27 under section 69.14 and is repealed January 1, 1993.

28 Sec. 4. The membership of the senate and the house of 29 representatives in the seventy-fifth and subsequent general
30 assemblies shall be determined as follows:

31 1. Each representative district established by section 2
32 of this Act shall elect one representative for a term of two 33 years in 1992 and every subsequent even-numbered year.

34 2. Each even-numbered senatorial district established by 35 section 41.2, which the general assembly adopts by reference,

1 and section 2 of this Act, shall elect a senator in 1992 for a
2 four-year term commencing in January 1993. If an incumbent
3 senator who was elected to a four-year term which commenced in 4 January 1991, or was subsequently elected to fill a vacancy in
5 such a term, is residing in an even-numbered senatorial
6 district on March 13, 1992, that senator's term of office
7 shall be terminated on January 1, 1993.

8 3. Each odd-numbered senatorial district established by 9 section 41.2, which the general assembly adopts by reference,
10 and section 2 of this Act, shall elect a senator in 1994 for a
11 four-year term commencing in January 1995.

12 a. If one and only one incumbent state senator is residing 13 in an odd-numbered senatorial district on March 13, 1992, and 14 that senator meets all of the following requirements, the 15 senator shall represent the district in the senate for the 16 Seventy-fifth General Assembly.

17 (1) The senator was elected to a four-year term which 18 commenced in January 1991, or was subsequently elected to fill
19 a vacancy in such a term.

20 (2) The senatorial district adopted under this Act which 21 includes the place of residence of the state senator on the
22 date of the senator's last election to the senate is the same
23 as the odd-numbered senatorial district in which the senator
24 resides on March 13, 1992, or is contiguous to such odd-
25 numbered senatorial district. Areas which meet only at the 26 points of adjoining corners are not contiguous.

27 b. Each odd-numbered senatorial district to which
28 paragraph "a" of this subsection is not applicable shall elect
29 a senator in 1992 for a two-year term commencing in January
30 1993.

31 Sec. 5. For purposes of this Act, each reference to a
32 specific city or township means the city or township as its 33 boundary existed on January 1, 1990, the official date for 34 establishing such boundaries under the 1990 United States
35 decennial census. Also, for purposes of this Act, each

1 reference to a street or other boundary means the boundaries
2 as they are delineated on the official Public Law 94-171
3 census maps.

4 Sec. 6. This Act, being deemed of immediate importance,
5 takes effect upon its enactment.

6 EXPLANATION

7 This bill provides for congressional and legislative re-
8 districting for the state effective during the 1992 general
9 election. The bill takes effect upon its enactment.

20 Sec. 3. If a vacancy in the general assembly occurs or 21 exists after the effective date of this Act, at a time which 22 makes it necessary to fill the vacancy at a special election
23 held pursuant to section 69.14, the vacancy shall be filled
24 from the same district provided in chapter 41, Code 1991, that
25 elected the senator or representative whose seat is vacant.
26 This does not apply if a special election is not required
27 under section 69.14 and is repealed January 1, 1993.

28 Sec. 4. The membership of the senate and the house of 29 representatives in the seventy-fifth and subsequent general
30 assemblies shall be determined as follows:

31 1. Each representative district established by section 2
32 of this Act shall elect one representative for a term of two 33 years in 1992 and every subsequent even-numbered year.

34 2. Each even-numbered senatorial district established by 35 section 41.2, which the general assembly adopts by reference,

1 and section 2 of this Act, shall elect a senator in 1992 for a
2 four-year term commencing in January 1993. If an incumbent
3 senator who was elected to a four-year term which commenced in 4 January 1991, or was subsequently elected to fill a vacancy in
5 such a term, is residing in an even-numbered senatorial
6 district on March 13, 1992, that senator's term of office
7 shall be terminated on January 1, 1993.

8 3. Each odd-numbered senatorial district established by 9 section 41.2, which the general assembly adopts by reference,
10 and section 2 of this Act, shall elect a senator in 1994 for a
11 four-year term commencing in January 1995.

12 a. If one and only one incumbent state senator is residing 13 in an odd-numbered senatorial district on March 13, 1992, and 14 that senator meets all of the following requirements, the 15 senator shall represent the district in the senate for the 16 Seventy-fifth General Assembly.

17 (1) The senator was elected to a four-year term which
18 commenced in January 1991, or was subsequently elected to fill
19 a vacancy in such a term.

20 (2) The senatorial district adopted under this Act which 21 includes the place of residence of the state senator on the
22 date of the senator's last election to the senate is the same
23 as the odd-numbered senatorial district in which the senator
24 resides on March 13, 1992, or is contiguous to such odd-
25 numbered senatorial district. Areas which meet only at the 26 points of adjoining corners are not contiguous.

27 b. Each odd-numbered senatorial district to which
28 paragraph "a" of this subsection is not applicable shall elect
29 a senator in 1992 for a two-year term commencing in January
30 1993.

31 Sec. 5. For purposes of this Act, each reference to a
32 specific city or township means the city or township as its 33 boundary existed on January 1, 1990, the official date for
34 establishing such boundaries under the 1990 United States
35 decennial census. Also, for purposes of this Act, each

1 reference to a street or other boundary means the boundaries
2 as they are delineated on the official Public Law 94-171
3 census maps.

4 Sec. 6. This Act, being deemed of immediate importance,
5 takes effect upon its enactment.

Sec. 3. If a vacancy in the general assembly occurs or exists after the effective date of this Act, at a time which makes it necessary to fill the vacancy at a special election held pursuant to section 69.14, the vacancy shall be filled from the same district provided in chapter 41, Code 1991, that elected the senator or representative whose seat is vacant. This does not apply if a special election is not required under section 69.14 and is repealed January 1, 1993.

Sec. 4. The membership of the senate and the house of representatives in the seventy-fifth and subsequent general assemblies shall be determined as follows:

1. Each representative district established by section 2 of this Act shall elect one representative for a term of two years in 1992 and every subsequent even-numbered year.

2. Each even-numbered senatorial district established by section 41.2, which the general assembly adopts by reference, and section 2 of this Act, shall elect a senator in 1992 for a four-year term commencing in January 1993. If an incumbent senator who was elected to a four-year term which commenced in January 1991, or was subsequently elected to fill a vacancy in such a term, is residing in an even-numbered senatorial district on March 13, 1992, that senator's term of office shall be terminated on January 1, 1993.

3. Each odd-numbered senatorial district established by section 41.2, which the general assembly adopts by reference, and section 2 of this Act, shall elect a senator in 1994 for a four-year term commencing in January 1995.

a. If one and only one incumbent state senator is residing in an odd-numbered senatorial district on March 13, 1992, and that senator meets all of the following requirements, the senator shall represent the district in the senate for the Seventy-fifth General Assembly.

(1) The senator was elected to a four-year term which commenced in January 1991, or was subsequently elected to fill a vacancy in such a term.

(2) The senatorial district adopted under this Act which includes the place of residence of the state senator on the date of the senator's last election to the senate is the same as the odd-numbered senatorial district in which the senator resides on March 13, 1992, or is contiguous to such odd-numbered senatorial district. Areas which meet only at the points of adjoining corners are not contiguous.

b. Each odd-numbered senatorial district to which paragraph "a" of this subsection is not applicable shall elect a senator in 1992 for a two-year term commencing in January 1993.

Sec. 5. For purposes of this Act, each reference to a specific city or township means the city or township as its boundary existed on January 1, 1990, the official date for establishing such boundaries under the 1990 United States decennial census. Also, for purposes of this Act, each reference to a street or other boundary means the boundaries as they are delineated on the official Public Law 94-171 census maps.

Sec. 6. This Act, being deemed of immediate importance, takes effect upon its enactment.

JOE J. WELSH
