1 Section 1. Section 384.20, Code 1995, is amended by adding 2 the following new unnumbered paragraph:

3 NEW UNNUMBERED PARAGRAPH. Continuing appropriation means 4 the unexpended portion of the cost of public improvements, as 5 defined in section 384.95, which cost was adopted through a 6 public hearing pursuant to section 384.102 and was included in 7 an adopted or amended budget of a city. A continuing 8 appropriation does not expire at the conclusion of a fiscal 9 year. A continuing appropriation continues until the public 10 improvement is completed, but expenditures under the 11 continuing appropriation shall not exceed the resources
12 available for paying for the public improvement.

13 EXPLANATION

14 This bill defines a city continuing appropriation as the 15 unexpended portion of the cost of public improvements, which 16 cost was adopted after a public hearing and was included in an 17 adopted or amended budget of a city. A continuing 18 appropriation continues until the public improvement is 19 completed but the expenditures under the continuing 20 appropriation shall not exceed the resources available to pay
21 for the public improvement. A continuing appropriation does 22 not expire at the conclusion of a fiscal year.
