SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 19

BY VILSACK and TINSMAN

A Senate Resolution relating to the well-being of Iowa's children.

WHEREAS, the citizens of Iowa have become increasingly concerned for the safety and well-being of their children; and

WHEREAS, Iowans as part of a long-standing tradition are committed to a quality education for all children; and

WHEREAS, Iowans are willing to commit their time, their energy, and their resources to making a better Iowa for children; NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE, That parents spend time transporting their children to school, that parents meet and talk with their children's teacher about the children's performance in school, that parents read to their children or encourage their children to read and that the television be turned off at least three hours a night, that the community, particularly the clergy, become more active in nurturing children by recognizing that it takes a whole village to raise a child; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the community, particularly the clergy and judges, establish lines of communication about children in need in order to avoid future problems with the legal system.
