- 1 Section 1. DISASTER EMERGENCY SCHOOL CALENDAR WAIVER. For
- 2 the school year beginning July 1, 1996, and ending June 30,
- 3 1997, the director of the department of education shall waive
- 4 the one-hundred-eighty-day school calendar requirement set
- 5 forth in section 279.10, subsection 1, as provided by this
- 6 section, for an accredited nonpublic school or public school
- 7 district that submits a written request if the school or
- 8 school district is located in a county proclaimed by the
- 9 governor to be a disaster emergency area. A school or school
- 10 district is eligible for this section only if the school or
- 11 school district's calendar was reduced by more than fifteen
- 12 days due to the disaster conditions and only school days
- 13 canceled due to disaster conditions in excess of fifteen days
- 14 may be waived.
- 15 Sec. 2. This Act, being deemed of immediate importance,
- 16 takes effect upon enactment.
- 17 EXPLANATION
- 18 This bill directs the director of the department of
- 19 education to waive, during the school year beginning July 1,
- 20 1996, and ending June 30, 1997, the 180-day school calendar
- 21 under certain conditions. To be eligible for a waiver, an
- 22 accredited nonpublic school or school district that applies
- 23 for a waiver must be located in a county proclaimed by the
- 24 governor to be a disaster emergency area. The school or
- 25 school district's calendar must have been reduced by more than
- 26 15 days due to the disaster conditions, and only those days
- 27 canceled due to the disaster conditions in excess of 15 days
- 28 may be waived.
- 29 The governor issued a disaster emergency proclamation on
- 30 January 29, 1997, for counties that experienced several severe
- 31 winter storm systems since January 9, including Cherokee,
- 32 Clay, Dickinson, Emmet, Kossuth, Lyon, O'Brien, Osceola, Palo
- 33 Alto, Plymouth, and Sioux counties.
