S.C. 11

1 Section 1. Section 422.7, subsection 34, Code 1997, is 2 amended to read as follows:

3 34. For a person who is disabled, or is fifty-five years
4 of age or older, or is the surviving spouse of an individual
5 or a survivor having an insurable interest in an individual
6 who would have qualified for the exemption under this 7 subsection for the tax year, subtract, to the extent included, 8 the total amount of a governmental or other pension or 9 retirement pay, including, but not limited to, defined benefit
10 or defined contribution plans, annuities, individual 11 retirement accounts, plans maintained or contributed to by an 12 employer, or maintained or contributed to by a self-employed 13 person as an employer, and deferred compensation plans or any 14 earnings attributable to the deferred compensation plans, up
15 to a maximum of three thousand dollars for a person who files
16 a separate state income tax return and up to a maximum of six
17 thousand dollars for a husband and wife who file a joint state
18 income tax return. However, a surviving spouse who is not 19 disabled or fifty-five years of age or older can only exclude 20 the amount of pension or retirement pay received as a result
21 of the death of the other spouse.

22 Sec. 2. APPLICABILITY. This Act applies retroactively to 23 January 1, 1997, for tax years beginning on or after that 24 date.

25 EXPLANATION

26 This bill allows certain persons to deduct the total amount
27 of all types of pension income in computing income for state
28 individual income tax purposes. Current law allows a 29 deduction of pension income of up to a maximum of $3,000 for a
30 person who files a separate return and $6,000 for a husband
31 and wife who file a joint return.

32 The bill applies retroactively to January 1, 1997, for tax
33 years beginning on or after that date.
