EXPLANATION

1 18 The department of economic development has the 1 19 responsibility of providing financial assistance to local 1 20 development corporations. These corporations are formed by 1 21 citizens interested in economic growth in their communities
1 22 through financing construction of buildings to attract 1 23 business or industry. This bill provides that financial 1 24 assistance to these corporations is subject to the 1 25 availability of funds in the building loan fund.

1 26 The department is also responsible for assisting in the 1 27 development, promotion, implementation, and administration of 1 28 a statewide network of regional corporations designed to 1 29 increase the availability of financing for small businesses.
1 30 This bill provides that such assistance is subject to the 1 31 availability of funds in the small business economic 1 32 development corporation fund.
