SF 93
STATE GOVERNMENT

1 Section 1. Section 34A.2, subsection 5, paragraph e,
2 subparagraph (2), Code 1999, is amended to read as follows:

3 (2) Recurring costs, including, but not limited to,
4 network access fees and other telephone charges, software,
5 equipment, and database management, and maintenance, including 6 the purchase or lease of subscriber names, addresses, and 7 telephone information from the local exchange service
8 provider. Recurring costs shall not include personnel costs 9 for a public safety answering point except as provided in 10 section 34A.10.

11 Sec. 2. NEW SECTION. 34A.10 SURCHARGE MONEYS --
12 PERMISSIBLE EXPENDITURE ON PERSONNEL.

13 If, after fully paying obligations under section 34A.7,
14 subsection 5, paragraph "b", subparagraphs (1) and (2), for a
15 budget year, moneys remain in an E911 service fund at the end
16 of that budget year in excess of a surplus of twenty-five 17 percent of the approved annual operating budget for the next 18 budget year, the joint E911 service board may expend such 19 excess moneys during the next budget year for the cost of 20 support personnel at a public safety answering point. The 21 joint E911 board shall inform the administrator that such 22 expenditure will be made in lieu of the administrator reducing
23 the surcharge. Personnel for which such expenditures are made
24 must be associated with providing E911 service.

25 EXPLANATION

26 This bill provides that if moneys remain in an E911 service
27 fund at the end of a budget year in excess of the 25 percent 28 surplus requirement after fully paying all obligations for 29 that budget year, the joint E911 service board may expend such 30 excess moneys during the next budget year for the cost of 31 support personnel at a public safety answering point. The 32 joint E911 board must inform the administrator that such 33 expenditure will be made in lieu of the administrator reducing
34 the surcharge. Personnel for which such expenditures are made
35 must be associated with providing E911 service.
