SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 103

BY FREEMAN

A Senate Resolution honoring native Iowan and St. Louis Rams offensive lineman Adam Timmerman.

WHEREAS, Adam Timmerman was born and raised on a farm outside of Cherokee, Iowa, and attended college at South Dakota State where he was a four-year football letterman, twice a winner of first-team academic all-conference honors, and a recipient of the Jim Langer Award, presented to the nation's top Division II lineman; and

WHEREAS, Adam Timmerman was drafted by the Green Bay Packers in 1995 and played as a starting offensive lineman in every game of the 1996 season in which the Packers won the National Football League championship, winning Super Bowl XXX; and

WHEREAS, after starting every game of the 1997 season and helping the Packers to a Super Bowl XXXI appearance, Adam Timmerman became a free agent in 1998 and was signed by the St. Louis Rams; and

WHEREAS, Adam Timmerman played an important role in the remarkable turnaround of the St. Louis Rams football team this season, helping the Rams win a division championship, the National Football Conference championship, and the National Football League championship; and

WHEREAS, the Rams' Super Bowl XXXIV victory marks Adam Timmerman's third Super Bowl appearance in four years; and

WHEREAS, Adam Timmerman still returns annually to
