

Senate Study Bill 1203

Bill Text

PAG LIN

1 1 Section 1. Section 169.5, Code 1999, is amended by adding 1 2 the following new subsection:
1 3 NEW SUBSECTION. 10. A person who, pursuant to section
1 4 169.4A, provides veterinary medical services, owns a
1 5 veterinary clinic, or practices in this state, shall obtain a
1 6 certificate from the board and be subject to the same
1 7 standards of conduct, as provided in this chapter and rules
1 8 adopted by the board, as apply to a licensed veterinarian,
1 9 unless the board determines that the same standards of conduct
1 10 are inapplicable. The board may issue, renew, or deny a
1 11 certificate; adopt rules relating to the standards of conduct;
1 12 and take disciplinary action against the person, including 1 13 suspension or revocation of a certificate, in accordance with 1 14 the procedures established in section 169.14.

1 15 EXPLANATION

1 16 This bill provides that individuals who, pursuant to Code
1 17 section 169.4A, provide veterinary medical services, own a
1 18 veterinary clinic, or practice in this state must obtain a
1 19 certificate from the board of veterinary medicine and be 1 20 subject to the same standards of conduct as are applicable to 1 21 a licensed veterinarian, unless the board determines that the 1 22 standards of conduct are inapplicable. The bill also provides 1 23 that the board may issue, renew, or deny a certificate; adopt
1 24 rules relating to the standards of conduct; and take 1 25 disciplinary action against the person, including suspension
1 26 or revocation of a certificate, in accordance with section
1 27 169.14.
