13 b. The city of Carter Lake.

14 Sec. 3. MEMBERSHIP.

15 1. CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS. Each congressional district
 16 established by section 1 of this Act shall elect one 17 representative for a term of two years in 2002 and every 18 subsequent even-numbered year.

19 2. STATE SENATE AND HOUSE DISTRICTS. The membership of 20 the senate and house of representatives in the eightieth and 21 subsequent general assemblies shall be determined as follows:

22 a. Each representative district established by section 2
 23 of this Act shall elect one representative for a term of two 24 years in 2002 and every subsequent even-numbered year.

25 b. Each odd-numbered senatorial district established by 26 section 41.2 which the general assembly adopts by reference,
 27 and section 2 of this Act, shall elect a senator in 2002 for a
 28 four-year term commencing in January 2003. If an incumbent 29 senator who was elected to a four-year term which commenced in 30 January 2001, or was subsequently elected to fill a vacancy in 31 such a term, is residing in an odd-numbered senatorial
 32 district on February 1, 2002, that senator's term of office
 33 shall be terminated on January 1, 2003.

34 c. Each even-numbered senatorial district established by 35 section 41.2 which the general assembly adopts by reference,

1 and section 2 of this Act, shall elect a senator in 2004 for a
2 four-year term commencing in January 2005.

3 (1) If one and only one incumbent state senator is 4 residing in an even-numbered senatorial district on February
5 1, 2002, and that senator meets all of the following
6 requirements, the senator shall represent the district in the 7 senate for the Eightieth General Assembly:

8 (a) The senator was elected to a four-year term which 9 commenced in January 2001 or was subsequently elected to fill
10 a vacancy in such a term.

11 (b) The senatorial district in the plan which includes the 12 place of residence of the state senator on the date of the 13 senator's last election to the senate is the same as the even-14 numbered senatorial district in which the senator resides on 15 February 1, 2002, or is contiguous to such even-numbered 16 senatorial district and the senator's declared residence as of 17 February 1, 2002, was within the district from which the 18 senator was last elected. Areas which meet only at the points
19 of adjoining corners are not contiguous.

20 (2) Each even-numbered senatorial district to which 21 subparagraph (1) of this paragraph "c" is not applicable shall 22 elect a senator in 2002 for a two-year term commencing in 23 January 2003. However, if more than one incumbent state
24 senator is residing in an even-numbered senatorial district on 25 February 1, 2002, and, on or before February 15, 2002, all but 26 one of the incumbent senators resigns from office effective no
27 later than January 1, 2003, the remaining incumbent senator
28 shall represent the district in the senate for the Eightieth
29 General Assembly. A copy of the resignation must be filed in 30 the office of the secretary of state no later than five p.m.
31 on February 15, 2002.

32 d. To fulfill the purposes of this subsection, the 33 secretary of state shall prescribe a form to be completed by 34 all senators to declare their residences as of February 1, 35 2002. The form shall be filed with the secretary of state no

1 later than five p.m. on February 1, 2002.

2 Sec. 4. VACANCIES.

3 1. MEMBER OF CONGRESS. If a special election to fill a
4 vacancy for a representative in Congress occurs or exists
5 after the effective date of this Act, at a time which makes it
6 necessary to fill the vacancy at a special election held 7 pursuant to section 69.14, the vacancy shall be filled from 8 the same district provided in chapter 40, Code 2001, which 9 elected the representative whose seat is vacant. This 10 subsection does not apply if a special election is not 11 required under section 69.14.

12 2. MEMBER OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY. If a vacancy in the 13 general assembly occurs or exists after the effective date of 14 this Act, at a time which makes it necessary to fill the 15 vacancy at a special election held pursuant to section 69.14, 16 the vacancy shall be filled from the same district provided in 17 chapter 41, Code 2001, which elected the senator or 18 representative whose seat is vacant. This subsection does not 19 apply if a special election is not required under section 20 69.14.

21 3. REPEAL. This section is repealed January 1, 2003.

22 Sec. 5. GEOGRAPHY. For purposes of this Act, each 23 reference to a specific city or township means the city or 24 township as its boundary existed on January 1, 2000, the 25 official date for establishing such boundaries under the 2000
26 United States decennial census. Also, for purposes of this 27 Act, such reference to a street or other boundary means such 28 street or boundary as they are delineated on the official Pub.
29 L. No. 94-171 census maps.

30 Sec. 6. EFFECTIVE DATE. This Act, being deemed of 31 immediate importance, takes effect upon enactment.

32 EXPLANATION

33 This bill establishes congressional and legislative 34 districts for the state effective during the 2002 and 35 subsequent general elections. Current Code section 41.2

S.F.

LSB 263
H.F.

1 provides that state senate districts are composed of two state
2 representative districts and specifies which numbered
3 representative districts make up each numbered senate
4 district. The bill takes effect upon enactment.

22 a. Each representative district established by section 2
23 of this Act shall elect one representative for a term of two 24 years in 2002 and every subsequent even-numbered year.

25 b. Each odd-numbered senatorial district established by 26 section 41.2 which the general assembly adopts by reference,
27 and section 2 of this Act, shall elect a senator in 2002 for a
28 four-year term commencing in January 2003. If an incumbent
29 senator who was elected to a four-year term which commenced in 30 January 2001, or was subsequently elected to fill a vacancy in 31 such a term, is residing in an odd-numbered senatorial
32 district on February 1, 2002, that senator's term of office
33 shall be terminated on January 1, 2003.

34 c. Each even-numbered senatorial district established by 35 section 41.2 which the general assembly adopts by reference,

1 and section 2 of this Act, shall elect a senator in 2004 for a
2 four-year term commencing in January 2005.

3 (1) If one and only one incumbent state senator is
4 residing in an even-numbered senatorial district on February
5 1, 2002, and that senator meets all of the following
6 requirements, the senator shall represent the district in the 7 senate for the Eightieth General Assembly:

8 (a) The senator was elected to a four-year term which 9 commenced in January 2001 or was subsequently elected to fill
10 a vacancy in such a term.

11 (b) The senatorial district in the plan which includes the 12 place of residence of the state senator on the date of the 13 senator's last election to the senate is the same as the even-
14 numbered senatorial district in which the senator resides on 15 February 1, 2002, or is contiguous to such even-numbered 16 senatorial district and the senator's declared residence as of 17 February 1, 2002, was within the district from which the 18 senator was last elected. Areas which meet only at the points
19 of adjoining corners are not contiguous.

20 (2) Each even-numbered senatorial district to which 21 subparagraph (1) of this paragraph "c" is not applicable shall 22 elect a senator in 2002 for a two-year term commencing in 23 January 2003. However, if more than one incumbent state
24 senator is residing in an even-numbered senatorial district on 25 February 1, 2002, and, on or before February 15, 2002, all but 26 one of the incumbent senators resigns from office effective no
27 later than January 1, 2003, the remaining incumbent senator
28 shall represent the district in the senate for the Eightieth
29 General Assembly. A copy of the resignation must be filed in 30 the office of the secretary of state no later than five p.m.
31 on February 15, 2002.

32 d. To fulfill the purposes of this subsection, the 33 secretary of state shall prescribe a form to be completed by 34 all senators to declare their residences as of February 1, 35 2002. The form shall be filed with the secretary of state no

1 later than five p.m. on February 1, 2002.

2 Sec. 4. VACANCIES.

3 1. MEMBER OF CONGRESS. If a special election to fill a
4 vacancy for a representative in Congress occurs or exists
5 after the effective date of this Act, at a time which makes it
6 necessary to fill the vacancy at a special election held 7 pursuant to section 69.14, the vacancy shall be filled from 8 the same district provided in chapter 40, Code 2001, which 9 elected the representative whose seat is vacant. This 10 subsection does not apply if a special election is not 11 required under section 69.14.

12 2. MEMBER OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY. If a vacancy in the 13 general assembly occurs or exists after the effective date of 14 this Act, at a time which makes it necessary to fill the 15 vacancy at a special election held pursuant to section 69.14, 16 the vacancy shall be filled from the same district provided in 17 chapter 41, Code 2001, which elected the senator or 18 representative whose seat is vacant. This subsection does not
19 apply if a special election is not required under section 20 69.14.

21 3. REPEAL. This section is repealed January 1, 2003.

22 Sec. 5. GEOGRAPHY. For purposes of this Act, each
23 reference to a specific city or township means the city or 24 township as its boundary existed on January 1, 2000, the 25 official date for establishing such boundaries under the 2000
26 United States decennial census. Also, for purposes of this 27 Act, such reference to a street or other boundary means such 28 street or boundary as they are delineated on the official Pub.
29 L. No. 94-171 census maps.

30 Sec. 6. EFFECTIVE DATE. This Act, being deemed of 31 immediate importance, takes effect upon enactment.

32 EXPLANATION

33 This bill establishes congressional and legislative 34 districts for the state effective during the 2002 and
35 subsequent general elections. Current Code section 41.2

1 provides that state senate districts are composed of two state
2 representative districts and specifies which numbered
3 representative districts make up each numbered senate
4 district. The bill takes effect upon enactment.

Sec. 3. MEMBERSHIP.

1. CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS. Each congressional district established by section 1 of this Act shall elect one representative for a term of two years in 2002 and every subsequent even-numbered year.

2. STATE SENATE AND HOUSE DISTRICTS. The membership of the senate and house of representatives in the eightieth and subsequent general assemblies shall be determined as follows:

a. Each representative district established by section 2 of this Act shall elect one representative for a term of two years in 2002 and every subsequent even-numbered year.

b. Each odd-numbered senatorial district established by section 41.2 which the general assembly adopts by reference, and section 2 of this Act, shall elect a senator in 2002 for a four-year term commencing in January 2003. If an incumbent senator who was elected to a four-year term which commenced in January 2001, or was subsequently elected to fill a vacancy in such a term, is residing in an odd-numbered senatorial district on February 1, 2002, that senator's term of office shall be terminated on January 1, 2003.

c. Each even-numbered senatorial district established by section 41.2 which the general assembly adopts by reference, and section 2 of this Act, shall elect a senator in 2004 for a four-year term commencing in January 2005.

(1) If one and only one incumbent state senator is residing in an even-numbered senatorial district on February 1, 2002, and that senator meets all of the following requirements, the senator shall represent the district in the senate for the Eightieth General Assembly:

(a) The senator was elected to a four-year term which commenced in January 2001 or was subsequently elected to fill a vacancy in such a term.

(b) The senatorial district in the plan which includes the place of residence of the state senator on the date of the senator's last election to the senate is the same as the even-numbered senatorial district in which the senator resides on February 1, 2002, or is contiguous to such even-numbered senatorial district and the senator's declared residence as of February 1, 2002, was within the district from which the senator was last elected. Areas which meet only at the points of adjoining corners are not contiguous.

(2) Each even-numbered senatorial district to which subparagraph (1) of this paragraph "c" is not applicable shall elect a senator in 2002 for a two-year term commencing in January 2003. However, if more than one incumbent state senator is residing in an even-numbered senatorial district on February 1, 2002, and, on or before February 15, 2002, all but one of the incumbent senators resigns from office effective no later than January 1, 2003, the remaining incumbent senator shall represent the district in the senate for the Eightieth General Assembly. A copy of the resignation must be filed in the office of the secretary of state no later than five p.m. on February 15, 2002.

d. To fulfill the purposes of this subsection, the secretary of state shall prescribe a form to be completed by all senators to declare their residences as of February 1, 2002. The form shall be filed with the secretary of state no later than five p.m. on February 1, 2002.

Sec. 4. VACANCIES.

1. MEMBER OF CONGRESS. If a special election to fill a vacancy for a representative in Congress occurs or exists after the effective date of this Act, at a time which makes it necessary to fill the vacancy at a special election held pursuant to section 69.14, the vacancy shall be filled from the same district provided in chapter 40, Code 2001, which elected the representative whose seat is vacant. This subsection does not apply if a special election is not required under section 69.14.

2. MEMBER OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY. If a vacancy in the general assembly occurs or exists after the effective date of this Act, at a time which makes it necessary to fill the vacancy at a special election held pursuant to section 69.14, the vacancy shall be filled from the same district provided in chapter 41, Code 2001, which elected the senator or representative whose seat is vacant. This subsection does not apply if a special election is not required under section 69.14.

3. REPEAL. This section is repealed January 1, 2003.

Sec. 5. GEOGRAPHY. For purposes of this Act, each reference to a specific city or township means the city or township as its boundary existed on January 1, 2000, the official date for establishing such boundaries under the 2000 United States decennial census. Also, for purposes of this Act, such reference to a street or other boundary means such street or boundary as they are delineated on the official Pub. L. No. 94-171 census maps.

Sec. 6. EFFECTIVE DATE. This Act, being deemed of immediate importance, takes effect upon enactment.

BRENT SIEGRIST
Speaker of the House

MARY E. KRAMER
President of the Senate

I hereby certify that this bill originated in the House and is known as House File 758, Seventy-ninth General Assembly.
