The Until a domestic abuse case is complete and the time for appeal has expired, the entire file or-a-portion-of the-fite in a-domestie-abuse the case shall be closed to all but the court and its officers. After that time the entire file or a portion of the file shall be sealed by the clerk of court as ordered by the court to protect the privacy interest or safety of any person.

EXPLANATION

This bill amends Code sections 22.7 and 236.10 relating to the confidentiality of certain domestic abuse records.

The bill creates a new subsection in Code section 22.7 providing that real estate records which identify the location of emergency shelters for victims of domestic abuse shall be confidential.

The bill amends Code section 236.10 to provide that the entire file in a domestic abuse case shall be closed to all but the court and its officers until complete and after the time for appeal has expired. Current law provides that the entire file or a portion of the file in a domestic abuse case shall be sealed by the clerk of court as ordered by the court to protect the privacy or safety interest of any person.
