A BILL FOR

1 An Act making changes to criminal sentences by permitting an 2 aggravated misdemeanor charge for certain burglary in the 3 third degree criminal offenses, by creating a sentence of a
4 determinate term of confinement and an additional 5 indeterminate term of years for certain class "D" felonies, by 6 extending the length of time for reconsideration of certain
7 felony sentences, and providing penalties.

1 Section 1. Section 713.6A, Code 2001, is amended to read
2 as follows:

3 713.6A BURGLARY IN THE THIRD DEGREE.

4 1. All burglary which is not burglary in the first degree
5 or burglary in the second degree is burglary in the third
6 degree. Burglary in the third degree is a class "D" felony,
7 except as provided in subsection 2.

8 2. Burglary in the third degree involving a burglary of an 9 unoccupied motor vehicle or motor truck as defined in section
10 321.1, or a vessel defined in section 462A.2, is an aggravated 11 misdemeanor for a first offense. A second or subsequent 12 conviction under this section is punishable under subsection
13 1.

14 Sec. 2. Section 713.6B, Code 2001, is amended to read as 15 follows:

16 713.6B ATTEMPTED BURGLARY IN THE THIRD DEGREE.

17 1. All attempted burglary which is not attempted burglary
18 in the first degree or attempted burglary in the second degree
19 is attempted burglary in the third degree. Attempted burglary 20 in the third degree is an aggravated misdemeanor, except as 21 provided in subsection 2.

22 2. Attempted burglary in the third degree involving an 23 attempted burglary of an unoccupied motor vehicle or motor 24 truck as defined in section 321.1, or a vessel defined in 25 section 462A.2, is a serious misdemeanor for a first offense.
26 A second or subsequent conviction under this section is 27 punishable under subsection 1.

28 Sec. 3. Section 901.5, Code 2001, is amended by adding the 29 following new subsection:

30 NEW SUBSECTION. 13. In addition to any sentence or other 31 penalty imposed against the defendant, the court shall 32 sentence the defendant to an additional indeterminate term of 33 years if required under section 902.3A, subsection 2.

34 Sec. 4. NEW SECTION. 902.3A DETERMINATE SENTENCING AND 35 ADDITIONAL TERM OF YEARS FOR CLASS "D" FELONS.

1 1. Notwithstanding section 902.3, when a conviction for a 2 class "D" felony is entered against a person, the court, at 3 its discretion, in imposing a sentence of confinement pursuant 4 to section 901.5, may commit the person into the custody of 5 the director of the Iowa department of corrections for a 6 determinate term of less than the maximum length of the 7 sentence prescribed by section 902.9, subsection 5, if 8 mitigating circumstances exist and those circumstances are 9 stated specifically on the record.

10 a. The determinate term of confinement shall not be for 11 less than one year and if a mandatory minimum sentence is 12 required by law, the determinate term of confinement imposed
13 under this section shall not be less than the mandatory
14 minimum term of confinement prescribed by law.

15 b. A person sentenced to a determinate term of confinement
16 under this section shall not be eligible for parole until the 17 person has served one-half of the determinate term of 18 confinement under the sentence.

19 c. Earned time shall be calculated as provided in chapter 20 903A. However, earned time accrued and not forfeited shall 21 not apply to cause the person to become eligible for parole
22 until the person has served one-half of the determinate term
23 of confinement.

24 d. A person on parole or work release under a determinate
25 term of confinement imposed under this section shall be 26 subject to the terms and conditions of parole or work release
27 as set out in chapter 906. Violations of parole or work
28 release shall be subject to the procedures set out in chapters
29 905 and 908 or rules adopted under those chapters.

30 e. This section does not apply to an offense classified as 31 a forcible felony, a felony under section 321J.2, felonies in 32 chapters 707, 708, and 709, a person sentenced as a habitual
33 offender, felonies listed in section 901A.1, felonies listed
34 in section 902.12, or a felony committed by a person on parole
35 or work release, or while in the custody of the director of

1 the department of corrections.

2 2. When the person is sentenced and committed into the 3 custody of the director of the department of corrections
4 pursuant to subsection 1, the person shall also be sentenced
5 to an additional indeterminate term of years not to exceed two 6 years. The sentence of an additional term shall be 7 consecutive to the determinate term of confinement.

8 a. The sentence of an additional indeterminate term of 9 years shall commence immediately upon the expiration of the 10 determinate term of confinement and the person shall be 11 assigned to the judicial district department of correctional 12 services by the department of corrections. The district
13 department shall place a person assigned to it under this 14 paragraph in a level of sanction and supervision which is 15 appropriate to the person pursuant to the district's 16 intermediate criminal sanctions program operated under chapter
17 901B.

18 b. The district department may transfer a person along the 19 continuum of the intermediate criminal sanctions program
20 operated pursuant to chapter 901B as necessary and appropriate
21 during the period the person is assigned to the district
22 department. If the person violates the terms and conditions
23 of the placement, the district may transfer the person to a 24 more restrictive placement as provided in the program.

25 c. A person serving an additional indeterminate term of 26 years may be discharged from that sentence in the same manner
27 as a person serving probation may be discharged under section
28 907.9. Discharge from an additional indeterminate term of 29 years terminates the person's sentence of an additional 30 indeterminate term of years.

31 d. A person serving an additional indeterminate term of 32 years shall receive credit for any time served after discharge
33 from the preceding determinate term of confinement against the 34 person's sentence of an additional indeterminate term of 35 years.

1 3. Notwithstanding subsection 2, if a person is paroled at 2 least six months prior to the expiration of the person's
3 determinate term of confinement, the person shall not serve an
4 additional indeterminate term of years.

5 4. Section 907.3 governs the inapplicability of deferred
6 judgments and deferred or suspended sentences to sentences
7 imposed under this section.

8 Sec. 5. Section 902.4, Code 2001, is amended to read as 9 follows:

10 902.4 RECONSIDERATION OF FELON'S SENTENCE.

11 For a period of ~~ninety-days~~ one year from the date when a 12 person convicted of a felony, other than a class "A" felony or 13 a felony for which a minimum sentence of confinement is 14 imposed, begins to serve a sentence of confinement, the court, 15 on its own motion or on the recommendation of the director of 16 the Iowa department of corrections, may order the person to be 17 returned to the court, at which time the court may review its 18 previous action and reaffirm it or substitute for it any 19 sentence permitted by law. Copies of the order to return the 20 person to the court shall be provided to the attorney for the 21 state, the defendant's attorney, and the defendant. Upon a
22 request of the attorney for the state, the defendant's
23 attorney, or the defendant if the defendant has no attorney,
24 the court may, but is not required to, conduct a hearing on 25 the issue of reconsideration of sentence. The court shall not 26 disclose its decision to reconsider or not to reconsider the 27 sentence of confinement until the date reconsideration is 28 ordered or the date the ~~ninety-day~~ one-year period expires, 29 whichever occurs first. The district court retains 30 jurisdiction for the limited purposes of conducting such 31 review and entering an appropriate order notwithstanding the 32 timely filing of a notice of appeal. The court's final order
33 in the proceeding shall be delivered to the defendant
34 personally or by certified mail. The court's decision to take 35 the action or not to take the action is not subject to appeal.

1 However, for the purposes of appeal, a judgment of conviction
2 of a felony is a final judgment when pronounced.

3 Sec. 6. Section 903.4, Code 2001, is amended to read as
4 follows:

5 903.4 PROVIDING PLACE OF CONFINEMENT.

6 All persons sentenced to confinement for a period of one
7 year or less shall be confined in a place to be furnished by 8 the county where the conviction was had unless the person is 9 presently committed to the custody of the director of the Iowa
10 department of corrections, in which case the provisions of 11 section 901.8 apply, or unless the person is serving a 12 determinate term of confinement of one year pursuant to 13 section 902.3A. All persons sentenced to confinement for a 14 period of more than one year shall be committed to the custody
15 of the director of the Iowa department of corrections to be 16 confined in a place to be designated by the director and the 17 cost of the confinement shall be borne by the state. The 18 director may contract with local governmental units for the 19 use of detention or correctional facilities maintained by the 20 units for the confinement of such persons.

21 Sec. 7. Section 907.3, subsection 1, Code 2001, is amended
22 by adding the following new paragraph:

23 NEW PARAGRAPH. m. The offense is for a determinate term
24 of confinement or an additional indeterminate term of years as
25 provided in section 902.3A.

26 Sec. 8. Section 907.3, subsection 2, Code 2001, is amended
27 by adding the following new paragraph:

28 NEW PARAGRAPH. g. The offense is for a determinate term
29 of confinement or an additional indeterminate term of years as
30 provided in section 902.3A.

31 Sec. 9. Section 907.3, subsection 3, Code 2001, is amended
32 by adding the following new paragraph:

33 NEW PARAGRAPH. g. The sentence for a determinate term of 34 confinement or an additional indeterminate term of years as 35 provided in section 902.3A.

1       Sec. 10. DETERMINATE SENTENCING AND RECONSIDERATION OF A 2 FELON'S SENTENCE -- INFORMATION. The department of 3 corrections, in cooperation with the division of criminal and
4 juvenile justice planning of the department of human rights,
5 the state public defender, and the office of the prosecuting
6 attorneys training coordinator in the department of justice,
7 shall compile and provide information about determinate
8 sentencing under section 902.3A and about reconsideration of a 9 felon's sentence under section 902.4 for distribution through 10 the Iowa state bar association for the purpose of educating 11 attorneys and judges about those sections.

12                               EXPLANATION

13       This bill makes changes to criminal sentences by permitting 14 for an aggravated misdemeanor charge for certain burglary in 15 the third degree criminal offense, by creating a sentence of a
16 determinate term of confinement and an additional
17 indeterminate term of years for certain class "D" felonies,
18 and by extending the time for reconsideration of certain 19 criminal sentences.

20       BURGLARY IN THE THIRD DEGREE. The bill changes the 21 criminal penalties for burglary in the third degree or 22 attempted burglary in the third degree for a burglary
23 perpetrated upon an unoccupied motor vehicle, motor truck, or 24 vessel. The bill provides that a person who commits a first 25 offense burglary in the third degree on an unoccupied motor 26 vehicle, motor truck, or vessel commits an aggravated
27 misdemeanor and a person who commits a first offense attempted
28 burglary in the third degree on an unoccupied motor vehicle, 29 motor truck, or vessel commits a serious misdemeanor. Under 30 the bill, a person who commits a second or subsequent offense
31 or a burglary on any other type of unoccupied structure which 32 includes a personal residence commits a class "D" felony.

33       DETERMINATE SENTENCING FOR "D" FELONIES. The bill provides 34 the court with a determinate sentencing option if mitigating 35 circumstances exist and those circumstances are stated

1 specifically on the record. The bill provides that the court
2 may, at its discretion, sentence a person to a term of 3 confinement at an institution of the department of corrections
4 for a determinate term less than the maximum indeterminate
5 sentence of five years for a class "D" felony. The term of 6 confinement shall not be for less than one year. However, if 7 the sentence also carries a mandatory minimum sentence, the 8 determinate term of confinement shall not be less than the 9 mandatory minimum sentence required by law. The bill provides 10 that the court is not authorized to defer or suspend the 11 sentence, or enter a deferred judgment of a determinate
12 sentence entered under this sentencing option.

13 The bill provides that if a person is sentenced to a 14 determinate term of confinement, the person shall not be 15 eligible for parole until one-half of the term has been 16 served. The bill also provides that earned time accrued and 17 not forfeited shall not apply to cause the person to become 18 eligible for parole until the person has served one-half of 19 the determinate term of confinement entered under this 20 sentencing option.

21 Determinate sentencing does not apply to an offense
22 classified as a forcible felony, a felony under Code section
23 321J.2, felonies in Code chapters 707, 708, and 709, a person
24 sentenced as a habitual offender, felonies listed in Code
25 section 901A.1, felonies listed in Code section 902.12, or a 26 felony committed by a person on parole or work release, or 27 while in the custody of the director of the department of 28 corrections.

29 ADDITIONAL TERM OF YEARS FOR "D" FELONS. The bill also 30 provides that if the person is sentenced to a determinate term
31 of confinement under this sentencing option, the court shall 32 also sentence the person to an additional indeterminate term
33 of years not to exceed two years. The sentence of an 34 additional indeterminate term of years commences immediately
35 upon the expiration of the preceding determinate term of

1 confinement and the person shall be assigned to the judicial
2 district department of correctional services by the department
3 of corrections.

4 The bill provides that the district department shall place
5 a person serving an additional indeterminate term of years in 6 a level of sanction and supervision which is appropriate to 7 the person pursuant to the district's intermediate criminal
8 sanctions program under Code chapter 901B. The district
9 department may transfer a person along the continuum, if 10 necessary and appropriate. If a person violates the terms and 11 conditions of placement, the district may transfer the person
12 to a more restrictive placement as provided in the district's 13 program.

14 The bill provides that a person serving an additional 15 indeterminate term of years may be discharged from the 16 sentence in the same manner as a person serving probation may 17 be discharged under Code section 907.9.

18 The bill provides that a person serving an additional 19 indeterminate term of years shall receive credit for any time
20 served after expiration from the preceding determinate term of 21 confinement against the person's sentence of an additional 22 indeterminate term of years.

23 The bill also provides that if a person is paroled more 24 than six months prior to the expiration of the person's 25 determinate term of confinement, the person shall not serve an
26 additional indeterminate term of years.

27 RECONSIDERATION OF SENTENCES. The bill provides that a
28 felon's sentence other than a class "A" felony or where a
29 minimum sentence of confinement is imposed may be reconsidered
30 by the court within one year from the date of the felon's
31 sentence. Current law provides that a felon's sentence may be 32 reconsidered by the court within 90 days from the date of the 33 felon's sentence. Reconsideration of sentence is where the 34 court sentences a person to a term of confinement and then 35 orders the person returned to the court, at which time the

1 court reviews its previous sentence and may substitute the 2 previous sentence with any other sentence permitted by law.

3 EDUCATION. The bill provides that the department of 4 corrections, in cooperation with the division of criminal and 5 juvenile justice planning, the state public defender, and the 6 office of the prosecuting attorneys training coordinator,
7 shall compile and provide information for distribution about 8 the changes to criminal sentencing under the bill.

SENATE FILE 543
FISCAL NOTE*REQUESTED BY:
SENATOR MCKEAN

The estimate for Senate File 543 is hereby submitted as a fiscal note pursuant to Joint Rule 17 and as a correctional impact statement pursuant to Section 2.56, Code of Iowa. Data used in developing this fiscal note and correctional impact statement are available from the Legislative Fiscal Bureau to members of the Legislature upon request.

Senate File 543 changes the penalties for burglary in the third degree and attempted burglary in the third degree. The Bill provides that a person who commits burglary in the third degree on an unoccupied motor vehicle or vessel commits an aggravated misdemeanor. A person who commits attempted burglary in the third degree on an unoccupied motor vehicle or vessel commits a serious misdemeanor. Burglary in the third degree on any other type of unoccupied structure remains a Class D felony. Attempted burglary in the third degree on any other type of unoccupied structure remains an aggravated misdemeanor. Senate File 543 provides for determinate sentencing for Class D felons with an additional indeterminate term for no more than two years on supervised release. The Bill assigns the offender to the criminal sanctions continuum in the Community-Based Corrections (CBC) District Departments. Senate File 543 also provides for sentence reconsideration for up to one year. Under current law, the sentence may be reconsidered within 90 days of the felon's sentence. The Bill also requires the Department of Corrections, the Prosecuting Attorney Training Coordinator, and the Criminal and Juvenile Justice Planning Division of the Department of Human Rights to compile and provide information about determinate sentencing through the Iowa Bar Association to educate attorneys and judges.

ASSUMPTIONS

1. Charge, conviction, and sentencing patterns and trends will not change over the projection period.
2. Prisoner length of stay, revocation rates, and other corrections' practices and policies will not change over the projection period.
3. The law will become effective July 1, 2001. A lag effect of six months is assumed, from the effective date of the change in the law to the date of first entry of affected offenders into the correctional system.
4. No lag effect is assumed for sentence reconsideration since a judge may immediately begin reconsidering sentences on July 1, 2001.
5. The analysis is based on information obtained from the Adult Corrections Information System, the computerized database for Iowa's prison system. Conviction and penalty information is based on FY 2000 data.
6. Approximately 20.0% of prison admissions for burglary in the third degree and attempted burglary in the third degree involved burglaries of

- vehicles. It is assumed that 20.0% of burglary in the third degree convictions that are now Class D felonies will be aggravated misdemeanors under Senate File 543. It is assumed that 20.0% of all attempted burglary in the third degree convictions that are now aggravated misdemeanors will be serious misdemeanors under Senate File 543.
7. A recidivism rate of 19.5% is used, based upon recent parole revocation data for all nonviolent offenses.
  8. The average length of stay in county jails for aggravated misdemeanors is 41 days, based upon the crimes of burglary and forgery. The average length of stay in county jails for serious misdemeanors is 50 days, based upon theft. The average length of stay for Class D felons is 187 days. The marginal cost per day for county jails is $25 per inmate.
  9. The marginal cost per day for probation or parole is $1.55 per offender. The average length of stay for community supervision is 6 months for a serious misdemeanor, 19 months for an aggravated misdemeanor, and 29 months for a Class D felony.
  10. The average length of stay in a CBC facility is four months. The marginal cost per offender per day is $16.
  11. The average length of stay in the State prison system is 16.7 months for nonviolent Class D felony convictions. The marginal cost per day is $16 per State prison inmate.
  12. The median cost per case for aggravated misdemeanors and Class D felonies is $1,000 to defend. The marginal cost per case for serious misdemeanors is $750.
  13. Court costs vary by type of offense charged as well as contested versus uncontested cases. Information concerning the ratio of contested versus uncontested cases is not available.
  14. The average court cost for an uncontested serious misdemeanor case is $282 while the average court cost for a contested serious misdemeanor case is $2,500.
  15. The average court cost for an uncontested aggravated misdemeanor case is $271 while the average court cost for a contested aggravated misdemeanor case is approximately $2,900.
  16. The average minimum court cost for a Class D felony is $3,000. The average maximum court cost for a Class D felony is $4,900.
  17. Court costs include expenses for the Clerk of Court, court attendant, court reporter, juries, and judges; i.e., Magistrates, District Associate Judges, and District Court Judges.
  18. The requirement that the Department of Corrections, Prosecuting Attorney Training Coordinator, and the Criminal and Juvenile Justice Planning Division provide training to judges and attorneys is not expected to have a significant fiscal impact.

19. It is assumed there will be no impact on revocation rates to prison under the CBC continuum. However, since the deadline for each CBC District Department to implement the continuum is July 1, 2001, there is no data with which to estimate the revocation rates.

CORRECTIONAL IMPACT

During FY 2002, 95 offenders will be convicted of an aggravated misdemeanor for burglary in the third degree. Under current law, these convictions would be Class D felonies. There will be 27 offenders convicted of a serious misdemeanor for attempted burglary in the third degree. Under current law, these convictions would be aggravated misdemeanors.

During FY 2003, 190 offenders will be convicted of an aggravated misdemeanor for burglary in the third degree. Under current law, these convictions would be Class D felonies. There will be 53 offenders convicted of a serious misdemeanor for attempted burglary in the third degree. Under current law, these convictions would be aggravated misdemeanors.

Admissions to the State prison system will decrease. There will be 3 fewer admissions to the prison system during FY 2002, 15 fewer admissions during FY 2003, and 1 less admission during FY 2006. The prison population will decrease by 13 inmates during FY 2002, 91 inmates during FY 2003, and 116 inmates during FY 2006.

Admissions to CBC facilities will decrease by 6 offenders during FY 2002, and 12 offenders during FY 2003 and each year thereafter. Admissions to probation and parole supervision will increase by 37 offenders during FY 2002 and 74 offenders each year thereafter.

Annual admissions to county jails will change as follows: 29 more admissions for aggravated misdemeanors with an average length of stay of 41 days; 25 more admissions for serious misdemeanors with an average length of stay of 50 days; and, 23 fewer admissions for Class D felons with an average length of stay of 187 days.

FISCAL IMPACT

State criminal justice system costs and county jail operations costs are expected to decrease under Senate File 543 as follows:

State General Fund:

	FY 2002	FY 2003
	-----	-----
State Prison Costs	$ (76,000)	$ (531,000)
CBC Costs	9,000	18,000
Indigent Defense Costs	(7,000)	(13,000)
Judicial Branch Costs	(232,000)	(463,000)
	-----	-----
Total General Fund Cost	$ (306,000)	$ (989,000)
	-----	-----

-4-

Local Government:

County Jails	$ (23,000)	$ (47,000)
--------------	-------------	-------------

The State prison system is currently operating at 111.0% of total capacity. The savings noted above may be a cost containment effort rather than an actual decrease in the operating budgets.

CBC facilities are currently operating at 100.0% of capacity. The facilities have waiting lists of offenders scheduled to serve their time in the facilities. Rather than a savings in the facilities' operating budgets, the number of offenders on the waiting lists may decrease compared to current law.

While admissions to county jails increase, jails will experience a savings in the operating budgets since more offenders will serve less time compared to current law.

AN ACT

MAKING CHANGES TO CRIMINAL SENTENCES BY PERMITTING AN AGGRAVATED MISDEMEANOR CHARGE FOR CERTAIN BURGLARY IN THE THIRD DEGREE CRIMINAL OFFENSES, BY CREATING A SENTENCE OF A DETERMINATE TERM OF CONFINEMENT AND AN ADDITIONAL INDETERMINATE TERM OF YEARS FOR CERTAIN CLASS "D" FELONIES, BY EXTENDING THE LENGTH OF TIME FOR RECONSIDERATION OF CERTAIN FELONY SENTENCES, AND PROVIDING PENALTIES.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF IOWA:

Section 1. Section 713.6A, Code 2001, is amended to read as follows:

713.6A BURGLARY IN THE THIRD DEGREE.

1. All burglary which is not burglary in the first degree or burglary in the second degree is burglary in the third degree. Burglary in the third degree is a class "D" felony, except as provided in subsection 2.

2. Burglary in the third degree involving a burglary of an unoccupied motor vehicle or motor truck as defined in section 321.1, or a vessel defined in section 462A.2, is an aggravated misdemeanor for a first offense. A second or subsequent conviction under this section is punishable under subsection 1.

Sec. 2. Section 713.6B, Code 2001, is amended to read as follows:

713.6B ATTEMPTED BURGLARY IN THE THIRD DEGREE.

1. All attempted burglary which is not attempted burglary in the first degree or attempted burglary in the second degree is attempted burglary in the third degree. Attempted burglary in the third degree is an aggravated misdemeanor, except as provided in subsection 2.

2. Attempted burglary in the third degree involving an attempted burglary of an unoccupied motor vehicle or motor truck as defined in section 321.1, or a vessel defined in section 462A.2, is a serious misdemeanor for a first offense. A second or subsequent conviction under this section is punishable under subsection 1.

Sec. 3. Section 901.5, Code 2001, is amended by adding the following new subsection:

NEW SUBSECTION. 13. In addition to any sentence or other penalty imposed against the defendant, the court shall sentence the defendant to an additional indeterminate term of years if required under section 902.3A, subsection 2.

Sec. 4. NEW SECTION. 902.3A DETERMINATE SENTENCING AND ADDITIONAL TERM OF YEARS FOR CLASS "D" FELONS.

1. Notwithstanding section 902.3, when a conviction for a class "D" felony is entered against a person, the court, at its discretion, in imposing a sentence of confinement pursuant to section 901.5, may commit the person into the custody of the director of the Iowa department of corrections for a determinate term of less than the maximum length of the sentence prescribed by section 902.9, subsection 5, if mitigating circumstances exist and those circumstances are stated specifically on the record.

a. The determinate term of confinement shall not be for less than one year and if a mandatory minimum sentence is required by law, the determinate term of confinement imposed under this section shall not be less than the mandatory minimum term of confinement prescribed by law.

b. A person sentenced to a determinate term of confinement under this section shall not be eligible for parole until the person has served one-half of the determinate term of confinement under the sentence.

c. Earned time shall be calculated as provided in chapter 903A. However, earned time accrued and not forfeited shall not apply to cause the person to become eligible for parole until the person has served one-half of the determinate term of confinement.

d. A person on parole or work release under a determinate term of confinement imposed under this section shall be subject to the terms and conditions of parole or work release as set out in chapter 906. Violations of parole or work release shall be subject to the procedures set out in chapters 905 and 908 or rules adopted under those chapters.

e. This section does not apply to an offense classified as a forcible felony, a felony under section 321J.2, felonies in chapters 707, 708, and 709, a person sentenced as a habitual offender, felonies listed in section 901A.1, felonies listed in section 902.12, or a felony committed by a person on parole or work release, or while in the custody of the director of the department of corrections.

2. When the person is sentenced and committed into the custody of the director of the department of corrections pursuant to subsection 1, the person shall also be sentenced to an additional indeterminate term of years not to exceed two years. The sentence of an additional term shall be consecutive to the determinate term of confinement.

a. The sentence of an additional indeterminate term of years shall commence immediately upon the expiration of the determinate term of confinement and the person shall be assigned to the judicial district department of correctional services by the department of corrections. The district department shall place a person assigned to it under this paragraph in a level of sanction and supervision which is appropriate to the person pursuant to the district's intermediate criminal sanctions program operated under chapter 901B.

b. The district department may transfer a person along the continuum of the intermediate criminal sanctions program operated pursuant to chapter 901B as necessary and appropriate during the period the person is assigned to the district department. If the person violates the terms and conditions of the placement, the district may transfer the person to a more restrictive placement as provided in the program.

c. A person serving an additional indeterminate term of years may be discharged from that sentence in the same manner as a person serving probation may be discharged under section 907.9. Discharge from an additional indeterminate term of years terminates the person's sentence of an additional indeterminate term of years.

d. A person serving an additional indeterminate term of years shall receive credit for any time served after discharge from the preceding determinate term of confinement against the person's sentence of an additional indeterminate term of years.

3. Notwithstanding subsection 2, if a person is paroled at least six months prior to the expiration of the person's determinate term of confinement, the person shall not serve an additional indeterminate term of years.

4. Section 907.3 governs the inapplicability of deferred judgments and deferred or suspended sentences to sentences imposed under this section.

Sec. 5. Section 902.4, Code 2001, is amended to read as follows:

902.4 RECONSIDERATION OF FELON'S SENTENCE.

For a period of ~~ninety-days~~ one year from the date when a person convicted of a felony, other than a class "A" felony or a felony for which a minimum sentence of confinement is imposed, begins to serve a sentence of confinement, the court, on its own motion or on the recommendation of the director of the Iowa department of corrections, may order the person to be returned to the court, at which time the court may review its previous action and reaffirm it or substitute for it any sentence permitted by law. Copies of the order to return the person to the court shall be provided to the attorney for the state, the defendant's attorney, and the defendant. Upon a request of the attorney for the state, the defendant's attorney, or the defendant if the defendant has no attorney, the court may, but is not required to, conduct a hearing on the issue of reconsideration of sentence. The court shall not disclose its decision to reconsider or not to reconsider the sentence of confinement until the date reconsideration is ordered or the date the ~~ninety-day~~ one-year period expires, whichever occurs first. The district court retains jurisdiction for the limited purposes of conducting such review and entering an appropriate order notwithstanding the timely filing of a notice of appeal. The court's final order in the proceeding shall be delivered to the defendant personally or by certified mail. The court's decision to take the action or not to take the action is not subject to appeal. However, for the purposes of appeal, a judgment of conviction of a felony is a final judgment when pronounced.

Sec. 6. Section 903.4, Code 2001, is amended to read as follows:

903.4 PROVIDING PLACE OF CONFINEMENT.

All persons sentenced to confinement for a period of one year or less shall be confined in a place to be furnished by the county where the conviction was had unless the person is presently committed to the custody of the director of the Iowa department of corrections, in which case the provisions of section 901.8 apply, or unless the person is serving a determinate term of confinement of one year pursuant to section 902.3A. All persons sentenced to confinement for a period of more than one year shall be committed to the custody of the director of the Iowa department of corrections to be confined in a place to be designated by the director and the cost of the confinement shall be borne by the state. The director may contract with local governmental units for the use of detention or correctional facilities maintained by the units for the confinement of such persons.

Sec. 7. Section 907.3, subsection 1, Code 2001, is amended by adding the following new paragraph:

NEW PARAGRAPH. m. The offense is for a determinate term of confinement or an additional indeterminate term of years as provided in section 902.3A.

Sec. 8. Section 907.3, subsection 2, Code 2001, is amended by adding the following new paragraph:

NEW PARAGRAPH. g. The offense is for a determinate term of confinement or an additional indeterminate term of years as provided in section 902.3A.

Sec. 9. Section 907.3, subsection 3, Code 2001, is amended by adding the following new paragraph:

NEW PARAGRAPH. g. The sentence for a determinate term of confinement or an additional indeterminate term of years as provided in section 902.3A.

Sec. 10. DETERMINATE SENTENCING AND RECONSIDERATION OF A FELON'S SENTENCE -- INFORMATION. The department of corrections, in cooperation with the division of criminal and juvenile justice planning of the department of human rights, the state public defender, and the office of the prosecuting attorneys training coordinator in the department of justice, shall compile and provide information about determinate sentencing under section 902.3A and about reconsideration of a felon's sentence under section 902.4 for distribution through the Iowa state bar association for the purpose of educating attorneys and judges about those sections.
