EXPLANATION

1 20 This bill eliminates filing and service of process fees for 1 21 plaintiffs seeking relief from domestic abuse, and allows the 1 22 court to determine whether these fees should be assessed to 1 23 the defendant. Current law allows the court discretion to 1 24 determine whether payment of filing and service of process
1 25 fees would prejudice the plaintiff's ability to provide
1 26 economic necessities for the plaintiff or the plaintiff's
1 27 dependents.

1 28 The bill is proposed to comply with the federal Violence
1 29 Against Women Act funding certification requirements.
