A Resolution recognizing and honoring the families of United States military service members for their unselfish contributions and sacrifices.

WHEREAS, the family members of those who serve in the United States military services provide essential support and unfailing encouragement to their loved ones deployed in this country and around the world;
and

WHEREAS, military families are diverse, strong, resourceful, dedicated, and patriotic; and

WHEREAS, while military families are often forced to make enormous emotional and financial sacrifices, they continue to provide comfort and reassurance to their serving family members and to each other; and

WHEREAS, it is the comfort and support of family that sustains service men and women and warms their hearts while serving during times of war and conflict;
and

WHEREAS, it is important to recognize the support provided by family members of those in the military as such support strengthens the vitality of the United States military services and of the nation as a whole;
NOW THEREFORE,

HR 137

1 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, 2 That the House of Representatives recognizes and 3 honors the family members of those who serve in the 4 military and expresses deep gratitude for all of their 5 unselfish contributions and sacrifices.
