Laid Over Under Rule 25

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 161

BY KUHN

A Resolution honoring the City of Stacyville on its sesquicentennial year.

WHEREAS, in 1851 the Sioux tribe signed over the area that would become Stacyville to the United States government pursuant to the last treaty in which Native Americans surrendered what would become Iowa soil to the United States; and

WHEREAS, the Dakota, Sioux, Sauk, and Fox tribes camped along the Cedar River near the early Stacyville settlers; and

WHEREAS, by 1855 the state of Iowa was only nine years old and hardy entrepreneurs from McHenry, Illinois, were looking westward toward opportunities in the northern part of Iowa; and

WHEREAS, in that same year Adam Blake and Nicholas Hemann arrived in the area that became Stacyville, laying the foundation for a community that has survived 150 years; and

WHEREAS, Stacyville Township was formed in 1856 and in February of that year Homer and Amelia (Donaldson) Stacy, with their family, built a house and store and platted the village of Stacyville; and

WHEREAS, by August 1856 a post office and sawmill had been established and by 1857 there were over 20 frame buildings in the village; and

WHEREAS, when the Stacy family donated a plot of land to be used as a park, the settlers decided to name the town after them; and

HR 161

1 WHEREAS, a school district was organized and the 2 first schoolhouse was completed by fall of 1856, with 3 a public high school built in 1867 and a Catholic 4 school building completed in 1877; and

5 WHEREAS, there were three Christian denominations 6 active in Stacyville in the latter half of the 7 nineteenth century: Catholic, Congregationalist, and 8 Methodist; and

9 WHEREAS, in 1893 Henry W. Schultz's catalogue 10 business preceded the Sears & Roebuck catalogue; and 11 WHEREAS, Stacyville provided homes for children who 12 rode the orphan trains between 1853 and the early 13 1900s; and

14 WHEREAS, Stacyville's newspapers have included The 15 Stacyville Sentinel, The Herald, The Stacyville 16 Monitor, and The Monitor Review; and 17 WHEREAS, after most of the east side of the 18 business district on Broad Street was destroyed by a 19 fire in 1935, the town pulled together to rebuild and 20 survive; and

21 WHEREAS, in the beginning, agriculture predominated 22 in the Stacyville area and 4-H is still strong today; 23 and

24 WHEREAS, Stacyville, located along the Little Cedar 25 River in northeast Iowa, will officially celebrate its 26 150th year of German heritage on July 28, 29, and 30, 27 2006, during its annual Bratwurst Daze, with this 28 year's motto: "We're looking back, but moving 29 forward."; NOW THEREFORE,

30 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

1 That the House of Representatives recognizes and 2 extends its congratulations to the City of Stacyville 3 on its sesquicentennial and for its 150 years of 4 service to its citizens and to the State of Iowa; and 5 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an official copy of 6 this Resolution be prepared and presented to mayor 7 Harold Isaac on behalf of the City of Stacyville.
