EXPLANATION

1 31
1 32 Under Code chapter 37 and subject to voter approval, a city
1 33 or county may erect and equip a memorial building or monument
1 34 to commemorate the service rendered by soldiers, sailors, and 1 35 marines of the United States. The city council or the board
2 1 of supervisors, as the case may be, appoints a commission to 2 2 oversee the erection and management of the building or 2 3 monument. Under current law, the commission consists of five
2 4 or seven members. This bill allows additional persons to be 2 5 appointed, not to exceed 11 members. In accord with existing 2 6 law, the bill provides that a majority of the commission
2 7 members constitutes a quorum.
