EXPLANATION

This bill concerns the department of human rights. The 33 11 bill creates two new divisions within the department, the 33 12 division of ethnic minorities and women and the division of 33 13 disabilities, and renames the current divisions within the 33 14 department as offices. The bill also provides that the 33 15 administrators of the various divisions of the department, 33 16 currently appointed by the governor, are eliminated. However, 33 17 the bill does provide that the deputy director of the 33 18 department shall be the coordinator of the office of community 33 19 action agencies. In addition, the bill reassigns duties and 33 19 action agencies. 33 20 responsibilities between the offices and commissions within 33 21 the department. The various subchapters of Code chapter 216A 33 22 are amended by the bill as follows:

Code section 216A.1 is amended to establish that the 33 25 department consists of two new divisions, the division of 33 26 ethnic minorities and women and the division of disabilities, 33 27 and renames the current divisions within the department as 33 28 offices.

Code section 216A.2, concerning the department director and 33 30 administrators, is amended. The bill maintains current law 33 31 that provides that the director of the department of human 33 32 rights is appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation 33 33 by the senate. However, the bill provides that the current 33 34 administrators of the various divisions of the department, appointed by the governor, are eliminated. In addition, the bill also provides that the department director is responsible 2 for appointing a deputy director and the administrators of the 3 two new divisions of the department, as well as other personnel of the department. The rewritten Code section also 5 provides that the department director has the authority to solicit gifts on behalf of the department, commissions, or offices, and can enter into contracts, and issue reports on 8 behalf of the department.

Code section 216A.3, concerning the human rights administrative=coordinating council, is amended to increase 34 10 the membership of the council from nine members to 10 and to 34 12 provide that the council representative from each office of 34 13 the department shall be selected by the applicable commission 34 14 or council. Current law provides that the administrator of 34 15 each division of the department is a member of the commission.

New Code section 216A.7 provides that the director, deputy 34 17 director, or an administrator of one of the two new divisions 34 18 created by this bill shall have access to nonconfidential 34 19 information of state entities that is relevant to the 34 20 department upon request. 34 21 DIVISION OF LATINO AF

DIVISION OF LATINO AFFAIRS:

The bill renames the division of Latino affairs as the 34 23 office of Latino affairs and eliminates the administrator 34 24 position.

Code section 216A.12, concerning the commission of Latino 34 26 affairs, is amended by the bill. The bill provides that the 34 27 commission shall meet at least quarterly each year and 34 28 establishes a mechanism for a member to not vote on a matter 34 29 in which the person has a conflict of interest. Code section 34 30 216A.13, concerning the organization of the commission, is 34 31 repealed and the substance of that Code section is moved to 34 32 the rewritten Code section 216A.12.

Code section 216A.14, concerning commission employees, is 34 34 stricken and rewritten by the bill. Current law granting 34 35 authority to the commission to employ personnel is stricken as 35 1 this authority is provided to the department director in the 2 bill. The rewritten Code section provides for the duties of 3 the office of Latino affairs. The bill transfers to the 35 35 4 office current duties of the commission concerning assistance to state agencies and other public organizations relative to 35 35 Latino persons, training, and work to establish a Latino 35 information center.

Code section 216A.15, concerning the duties of the 35 9 commission on Latino affairs, is amended to strike those 35 10 duties transferred to the office of Latino affairs. In 35 11 addition, the Code section is amended to provide that the 35 12 commission shall only provide input regarding budgetary and 35 13 personnel decisions instead of being responsible as it relates 35 14 to the office and commission.

35 15 Code section 216A.16, concerning commission powers to 35 16 accept gifts, solicit grants, and enter into contracts, and 35 17 Code section 216A.17, concerning a commission biennial report, 35 18 are repealed by the bill.

Code section 216A.52, creating the commission on the status 35 24 of women, Code section 216A.53, concerning commission terms of 35 25 office, and Code section 216A.54, concerning the meetings of 35 26 the commission, are stricken and the Code sections rewritten 35 27 by the bill.

Rewritten Code section 216A.52 establishes the duties of 35 29 the office on the status of women which include some duties 35 30 currently assigned to the commission. The bill provides that 35 31 the office shall serve as the primary advocate for, and shall 35 32 provide assistance and information relative to, women and 35 33 girls.

Rewritten Code section 216A.53 establishes the commission. 35 35 Provisions of current Code sections 216A.52, 216A.53, and 216A.54, are modified and included in this rewritten Code 2 section. The bill changes current law by providing that all 3 members reside in Iowa and that the commission meet at least 4 quarterly, instead of at least six times per year. 5 rewritten Code section also specifies what constitutes a 6 quorum, what vote is necessary for substantive action, and includes a conflict of interest provision for members.

Rewritten Code section 216A.54 establishes the powers and 9 duties of the commission. The Code section provides that the 36 10 commission shall study opportunities for and changing needs of 36 11 women and girls, serve as a liaison between the office and the 36 12 public, adopt rules for the commission and office, provide 36 13 input to the department director concerning the budget, and 36 14 recommend proposed policies and legislation. 36 15 Code section 216A.55, concerning the objection.

Code section 216A.55, concerning the objectives of the 36 16 commission, and Code section 216A.56, concerning the authority 36 17 of the commission to employ personnel and set the budget, are 36 18 repealed by the bill.

Code sections 216A.57 and 216A.58, concerning the duties 36 20 and authority of the commission, are repealed. Current law 36 21 allowed the commission to hold hearings, enter into contracts, 36 22 and accept grants of money or property.

Code section 216A.59, concerning access to information, is 36 24 repealed. The authority granted in this Code section is 36 25 provided to the department director, deputy director, 36 26 administrators of the department, in new Code section 216A.7.

36 27 Code section 216A 36 28 report, is repealed. Code section 216A.60, concerning a commission annual

DIVISION OF PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES:

The bill renames the division of persons with disabilities 36 31 as the office of persons with disabilities and eliminates the 36 32 administrator position.

Code section 216A.72 is stricken and rewritten by the bill 36 34 to establish the duties of the office of persons with 35 disabilities. The duties currently assigned to the commission of persons with disabilities and specified in current Code section 216A.77, subsections 1 through 6, are transferred to the office.

Code section 216A.74, concerning the membership of the commission, is stricken and rewritten by the bill to include 6 the membership of the commission, the terms of office, and officers of the commission, currently provided in Code 8 sections 216A.74 through 216A.76. The rewritten Code section 9 also specifies that the commission meet at least quarterly,

37 10 what constitutes a quorum, what vote is necessary for 37 11 substantive action, and includes a conflict of interest 37 12 provision for members. 37 13 Code section 216A.7

Code section 216A.75, is stricken and rewritten by the 37 14 bill, to provide for the duties of the commission. The Code 37 15 section provides that the commission shall study opportunities 37 16 for and changing needs of persons with disabilities, serve as 37 17 a liaison between the office and the public, adopt rules for 37 18 the commission and office, provide input to the department 37 19 director concerning the budget, and recommend proposed 37 20 policies and legislation. 37 21

Code section 216A.76, concerning officers of the 37 22 commission, and Code Code section 216A.77, concerning duties 37 23 of the commission, are repealed. 37 24

Code section 216A.78, concerning the administrator, and 37 25 Code section 216A.79, concerning acceptance of gifts and 37 26 grants, are repealed. 37 27 DIVISION OF COMMUN

The bill renames the division of community action agencies 37 29 as the office of community action agencies and eliminates the 37 30 administrator position. However, the bill provides that the 37 31 coordinator of the office shall be the deputy director of the 37 32 department.

Code section 216A.92, concerning duties of the 37 34 administrator, is stricken and rewritten to establish the 37 35 duties of the office of community action agencies. The 1 rewritten Code section provides that the office shall provide assistance to implement community action programs, administer 3 low=income energy assistance block grants, administer 4 department of energy funds for weatherization, implement 5 accountability measures, and issue an annual report.

Code section 216A.92A, concerning the commission of community action agencies, is amended. The bill specifies 8 that the commission meet at least quarterly, what constitutes a quorum, what vote is necessary for substantive action, and 38 10 includes a conflict of interest provision for members.

Code section 216A.92B, concerning the duties of the 38 12 commission, is rewritten by the bill. The bill provides that 38 13 the commission shall supervise collection of data on services 38 14 provided by community action agencies, serve as a liaison 38 15 between the office and the public, adopt rules for the 38 16 commission and office, provide input to the department 38 17 director concerning the budget, and recommend proposed 38 18 policies and legislation. 38 19 Code section 216A.93,

Code section 216A.93, concerning establishment of community 38 20 action agencies, is amended to provide that if any geographic 38 21 area in the state ceases to be served by a community action 38 22 agency, the coordinator may assist the governor in designating 38 23 an agency for that area.

Code section 216A.101, concerning an emergency 38 25 weatherization fund, and Code section 216A.103, establishing 38 26 an Iowa affordable heating program, are repealed.

Code section 216A.107, concerning the family development 38 28 and self=sufficiency council, is amended to specify what 38 29 constitutes a quorum, what vote is necessary for substantive 38 30 action, and includes a conflict of interest provision for 38 31 members.

DIVISION OF DEAF SERVICES:

The bill renames the division of deaf services as the 38 34 office of deaf services and eliminates the administrator 38 35 position.

Code section 216A.112, creating the commission of deaf 2 services, and Code section 216A.113, granting authority to the commission to employ staff, are stricken and the Code sections 4 rewritten.

Rewritten Code section 216A.112 establishes the duties of 6 the office of deaf services. The rewritten Code section transfers, in substance, current duties of the commission that are provided in current Code section 216A.114, subsections 1, 3, 4, 5, and 6, to the office.

39 10 Rewritten Code section 216A.113 creates the commission. Current provisions of Code section 216A.112 are transferred to 39 12 this Code section and specifies that the commission meet at 39 13 least quarterly, what constitutes a quorum, what vote is 39 14 necessary for substantive action, and includes a conflict of 39 15 interest provision for members.

39 16 Code section 216A.114, concerning the powers and duties of 39 17 the commission, is rewritten by the bill. The bill provides 39 18 that the commission shall study the needs of deaf and 39 19 hard-of-hearing people, serve as a liaison between the office

39 20 and the public, adopt rules for the commission and office,

39 21 provide input to the department director concerning the 39 22 budget, and recommend proposed policies and legislation. 39 23 Code section 216A.115, concerning the powers of the 39 24 commission that include the ability to accept grants and enter 39 25 into contracts, is repealed by the bill.

39 27 commission, is repealed by the bill.

Code section 216A.117, which creates the interpretation 39 29 services account, is repealed by the bill. The account 39 30 provides moneys to deaf services for continued and expanded 39 31 interpretation services.

DIVISION OF CRIMINAL AND JUVENILE JUSTICE PLANNING: The bill renames the division of criminal and juvenile justice planning as the office of criminal and juvenile justice planning and eliminates the administrator position. New Code section 216A.131A establishes the office to
