A "501(c)" is a tax-exempt, nonprofit corporation or association. The term is a reference to the United States Internal Revenue Code. A 501(c)(4) organization includes a nonprofit civic league or organization operated exclusively for the promotion of social welfare. A 501(c)(6) organization includes a business league, chamber of commerce, or similar group not organized for profit. This bill amends the definition of "political committee" to include these organizations.

The bill also requires organizations qualifying as exempt from taxation under § 501(c)(4) or § 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code to file reports with the ethics and campaign finance disclosure board if they participate in Iowa campaigns, engage in issue advocacy, or expect to receive $25,000 or more in gross receipts in a year.

The report for a § 501(c)(4) or § 501(c)(6) organization must contain the same information as a report prepared pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 527, relating to political organizations.

As provided in Code section 68A.701, a willful violation of any provision of the campaign finance Code chapter is a serious misdemeanor punishable by confinement for up to one year and a fine of at least $315 but not more than $1,875. A variety of civil remedies are also available in Code section 68B.32D for a violation of Code chapter 68A or rules of the ethics and campaign disclosure board, ranging from a reprimand to a civil penalty of not more than $2,000.
