7 This bill provides for the reorganization and modification 8 of provisions in Code chapter 99B governing games of skill or 9 chance, and raffles.

10 DIVISION I — SOCIAL AND CHARITABLE GAMBLING PROVISIONS.

11 The bill makes a variety of changes to Code section 99B.1 12 (definitions). The bill eliminates definitions for 13 "authorized", "controlling shareholder", "eligible applicant", 14 "posted", and "unrelated entity". New definitions for 15 "build-up or pyramid", "calendar raffles", "casino-style 16 games", "gambling", "game nights", and "licensed charitable 17 organization" are added. In addition, current definitions 18 or descriptions in Code section 99B.7 for "qualified 19 organizations", "charitable uses", "educational, civic, public, 20 charitable, patriotic, or religious uses", and "public uses"
21 are moved to Code section 99B.1. Existing definitions in Code
22 section 99B.1 are also modified. The definition for "amusement 23 concession" is amended to reference the games authorized and 24 not the location of where the games are played. "Bingo" is 25 amended to allow symbols or pictures to be used in playing 26 bingo and "bingo occasion" is amended to specify when a bingo
27 occasion ends. "Merchandise" is amended to provide that it 28 includes goods or services bought or sold in the regular course 29 of business and that a gift card not redeemable for cash is 30 considered merchandise. Other definitions in Code section 31 99B.1 are moved and made applicable to a subchapter of the 32 reorganized Code chapter.

33 Code section 99B.3, concerning amusement concessions, is 34 amended. The Code section, consistent with the change in the 35 definition of amusement concession, focuses on the type of

1 gambling activity allowed and eliminates existing locational
2 requirements for the activity. The Code section is amended 3 to increase the maximum value of prizes from $50 to $100 and 4 increases the maximum cost to play a game from $3 to $5. The 5 Code section is amended to specify what constitutes and does 6 not constitute allowable repurchase of prizes.

7 Code section 99B.4, providing for permitted locations of 8 amusement concessions, is repealed.

9 Code section 99B.5 (raffles conducted at a fair) is 10 repealed. The bill consolidates provisions governing raffles
11 in new Code section 99B.24.

12 Code section 99B.6 (games where liquor or beer is sold) is 13 rewritten by the bill. Restrictions on the locations where the 14 games may be conducted are unchanged and allowable games are 15 defined as social gambling but remain unchanged. Provisions 16 of existing Code section 99B.6 applicable to lawful social 17 gambling that may occur between individuals or in public places 18 in addition to locations where liquor or beer is sold are moved 19 to new Code section 99B.42.

20 Code section 99B.7 (games conducted by qualified 21 organizations) is repealed. Several provisions of the Code 22 section are moved and modified in new Code sections governing 23 qualified organization licensing as provided in the bill.

24 Code section 99B.7A (manufacturers and distributors of 25 bingo equipment and supplies — license) is amended to apply 26 to manufacturers and distributors of electronic raffle 27 systems. In addition, the amended Code section provides for 28 a single annual license for manufacturers and distributors of 29 $1,000 instead of a $1,000 manufacturers license and a $500 30 distributor license.

31 Code section 99B.7B (card game tournaments conducted by 32 qualified organizations representing veterans) is amended to 33 provide that a qualified organization representing veterans 34 shall apply for a qualified organization license under new Code 35 section 99B.12B to conduct a card game tournament.

1 Code section 99B.8 (annual game night) is repealed.

2 Provisions governing licensed and unlicensed game nights are 3 included in new Code sections 99B.26 and 99B.62.

4 Code section 99B.9 (gambling in public places) is rewritten
5 by the bill. Current provisions relative to the license fee
6 and the public places in which social gambling may be conducted
7 are unchanged. Provisions of existing Code section 99B.9 8 applicable to lawful social gambling that may occur between 9 individuals or where liquor or beer is sold are moved to new 10 Code section 99B.42.

17 amusement devices, include provisions contained in current Code 18 section 99B.10.

19 Code section 99B.10A, concerning registration of electrical 20 and mechanical amusement device manufacturers, distributors, 21 and for-profit owners, is amended by eliminating specific 22 reference to a manufacturer's representation in the category of 23 persons required to be registered under this Code section.

24 Code section 99B.10B, is amended to allow service for 25 actions relative to denial, suspension, or revocation of a

29 Code sections 99B.10C and 99B.10D are amended to reflect 30 updated internal code references in Code chapter 99B.

31 Code section 99B.11, concerning bona fide contests, is 32 amended by providing categories that include current bona fide 33 contests and by then allowing contests that fit each of the 34 categories. The bill also allows, as an additional category, 35 trivia and trading card contests.

1 New Code section 99B.11A provides definitions applicable
2 to qualified organizations and charitable gambling. New 3 definitions include "electronic bingo equipment" and several

8 and rewritten. The changes primarily eliminate provisions 9 applicable to social gambling generally that are moved to new 10 Code section 99B.42.

11 New Code section 99B.12B provides for qualified organization
12 licenses. The Code section identifies provisions generally 13 applicable to all licenses issued to a qualified organization 14 and provides for the fees and applicable games that may be 15 conducted pursuant to a two-year, one-year, 180-day, 90-day, 16 and 14-day qualified organization license. Current provisions 17 in Code section 99B.7 relative to licenses for public and 18 nonpublic schools and for school districts are moved to this 19 new Code section.

20 New Code section 99B.13A provides for general requirements
21 applicable to any gambling conducted by a qualified 22 organization. The requirements include provisions on 23 displaying the license, where gambling activities under 24 the license may be conducted, participation in gambling 25 requirements, and game-specific requirements.

26 New Code section 99B.14A provides for the distribution of 27 proceeds by a licensed qualified organization. Most provisions
28 governing distribution of proceeds are moved from current Code
29 section 99B.7. However, the bill provides that reasonable 30 expenses that may be retained by a licensed qualified 31 organization shall not exceed 40 percent of net receipts.
32 Current law limits reasonable expenses to 25 percent of net 33 receipts.

34 Code section 99B.15, providing for the applicability of the 35 Code chapter and penalties, is stricken and rewritten. The

1 Code section provides that a person who knowingly fails to 2 comply with the requirements of Code chapter 99B commits a 3 serious misdemeanor and that a person who intentionally files a 4 false or fraudulent report or application commits a fraudulent
5 practice under Code chapter 714.

6 New Code section 99B.15A provides general provisions 7 governing prizes awarded by a licensed charitable organization.

13 Criminal penalties relative to reports and applications are 14 moved to Code section 99B.15.

15 Code section 99B.16A provides for records and reports
16 required of licensed qualified organizations. The Code section 17 requires an annual report to be submitted by January 31 for the 18 prior calendar year. The bill provides that the initial annual 19 report shall be submitted by January 31, 2017, for the period
20 beginning July 1, 2015, and ending December 31, 2016.

21 Code section 99B.17, providing that gambling on credit is 22 unlawful and including an exception, is rewritten by the bill.
23 The rewritten Code section allows payment by check, electronic

25 under Code chapter 99B, except that only cash payments are 26 allowed for social gambling, registered amusement devices, and 27 amusement concessions not at a permanent location.

33 section provides operational requirements, prize requirements 34 as an exception to the general prize requirements in new

1 requirements. Most of the accounting requirements are moved 2 from Code section 99B.2 and other requirements are moved from 3 Code section 99B.7. As far as prizes, the new Code section 4 limits cash prizes and merchandise prizes to $250 per game of 5 bingo instead of $100 as currently provided in Code section

8 $300.

10 licensed qualified organization conducting a raffle. The 11 Code section establishes operational requirements relative 12 to conducting a raffle and authorizes a licensed qualified 13 organization to conduct one very large raffle per year upon 14 submission of an additional fee. The bill defines "very large 15 raffle" as a raffle where the cumulative value of cash and 16 prizes is more than $100,000 but not more than $200,000 or 17 the prize is real property. The bill also allows a qualified 18 organization to conduct one very small raffle per calendar
19 year without a license and without adhering to the reporting 20 requirements of new Code section 99B.16A. A "very small 21 raffle" is defined in the bill as a raffle where the cumulative 22 value of the prize or prizes is $1,000 or less and the value of 23 all entries sold is $1,000 or less.

24 New Code section 99B.25 allows a licensed qualified 25 organization with a two-year license to conduct a raffle

29 electronic raffle receipt.

31 organization to conduct one game night per calendar year.
32 Current provisions specific to game nights conducted by a 33 licensed qualified organization in Code section 99B.8 are moved

2 Code section 99B.8, subsection 6, is made applicable to all 3 licensed qualified organizations.

7 "sports betting pool" is moved from the definition of "pool"
8 in current Code section 99B.6.

9 New Code section 99B.42 provides general requirements
10 applicable to social gambling. Requirements in current Code 11 sections 99B.6, 99B.9, and 99B.12 that are applicable to social 12 gambling regardless of location are generally moved to this new 13 Code section.

14 New Code section 99B.51 includes definitions of 26 electrical or mechanical amusement devices that are required 27 to be registered. Current provisions in Code section 99B.10, 28 subsection 1, governing amusement devices that are required to 29 be registered are moved to this new Code section.

30 New Code section 99B.54 establishes criminal penalties for 31 violations of provisions concerning electrical or mechanical 32 amusement devices. The criminal offenses are similar to 33 current provisions in Code section 99B.10, subsections 2 34 through 5.

35 New Code section 99B.62 allows game nights to be conducted

1 without a license under certain circumstances. Current Code
2 section 99B.18, allowing company games, is moved to this new 3 Code section and is expanded to allow all persons to also hold 4 a casino night without a license subject to the requirements of 5 the new Code section. Current Code section 99B.8, subsection
6 4, concerning school game nights, is moved to this new Code 7 section.

16 defined in Code section 99B.1.

17 Code sections 99F.5 and 99F.6 are amended to provide that 18 the definition of "educational, civic, public, charitable, 19 patriotic, or religious uses" is located in Code section 99B.1.

20 Code section 331.304, concerning county powers, is amended

25 Code section 423.3, subsection 62, concerning exemptions 26 from sales and use taxes, is amended to provide that the 27 exemption is for raffles licensed pursuant to new Code section
28 99B.24 and only conducted at a fair. Current law references
29 the current Code section, repealed in the bill, that limited 30 the exemption to raffles conducted at a fair.

31 Code section 805.8C, subsection 4, concerning scheduled
32 violations relating to amusement devices, is amended to correct 33 internal references to the applicable amusement device.
