12 1. This division of this Act is not intended to and shall 13 not limit, modify, or otherwise adversely affect any amount
14 of tax credit issued, awarded, or allowed prior to January 1, 15 2025, nor shall it limit, modify, or otherwise adversely affect 16 a taxpayer's right to claim or redeem a tax credit issued,
17 awarded, or allowed prior to January 1, 2025, including but not 18 limited to any tax credit carryforward amount.

19 2. The repeal of a provision of law pursuant to this 20 division of this Act shall not constitute grounds for 21 rescission or modification of agreements entered into under 22 those provisions of law, if any. Any agreement entered into 23 prior to January 1, 2025, under a provision of law repealed
24 in this division of this Act, shall remain in effect until 25 it expires under its own terms, and shall be governed by the 26 applicable provisions of law as they existed immediately prior 27 to January 1, 2025.

28 Sec. 22. CORRESPONDING AMENDMENTS LEGISLATION. Additional 29 legislation is required to fully implement this division of 30 this Act. The director of the department of revenue shall, in 31 compliance with section 2.16, prepare draft legislation for 32 submission to the legislative services agency, as necessary, to 33 implement the repeal of the tax credits under this division of 34 this Act and under other provisions of law.

DIVISION II

FUTURE REPEAL OF FUTURE TAX CREDIT PROGRAMS

Sec. 23. NEW SECTION. 422.3A Future tax credit repeal.

1. For purposes of this section, "tax credit program" means any provision of law enacted by the general assembly that provides for an amount of money against the taxes imposed in this chapter, chapter 432, or in section 533.329.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, any tax credit program enacted by the general assembly that takes effect on or after January 1, 2020, is repealed on January 1 of the sixth year following the effective date of the tax credit program, unless another provision of the Code provides for an earlier repeal date.

3. The repeal of a tax credit program pursuant to subsection 2 is not intended to and shall not limit, modify, or otherwise adversely affect any amount of tax credit issued, awarded, or allowed prior to the effective date of the tax credit program repeal pursuant to subsection 2, nor shall it limit, modify, or otherwise adversely affect a taxpayer's right to claim or redeem a tax credit issued, awarded, or allowed prior to the effective date of the tax credit program repeal pursuant to subsection 2, including but not limited to any tax credit carryforward amount.

4. The repeal of a tax credit program pursuant to subsection 2 shall not constitute grounds for rescission or modification of agreements entered into under the tax credit program, if any. Any agreement entered into under a tax credit program prior to the effective date of the repeal of the tax credit program under subsection 2 shall remain in effect until it expires under its own terms, and shall be governed by the tax credit program as it existed prior to its repeal pursuant to subsection 2.

EXPLANATION

The inclusion of this explanation does not constitute agreement with the explanation's substance by the members of the general assembly.

This bill provides for the future repeal of certain existing

1 state income tax credits, and provides for the future repeal of 2 tax credits enacted by the general assembly in the future.

3 DIVISION I — FUTURE REPEAL OF EXISTING TAX CREDITS.

4 Division I repeals on January 1, 2025, the following tax
5 credits that currently have no repeal date: the accelerated 6 career education program job tax credit; the agricultural 7 assets transfer tax credit; the assistive device corporate tax 8 credit; the sales and use tax refund, corporate tax credit for 9 certain sales taxes paid by third-party developers, investment
10 tax credit, insurance premiums tax credit, and supplemental 11 research activities tax credit available under the high quality
12 jobs program; the redevelopment tax credits; the school tuition
13 organization tax credit; the solar energy system tax credit;
14 the innovation fund investment tax credit; the tax credit
15 for investments in a qualifying business; the wind energy
16 production tax credit; the charitable conservation contribution
17 tax credit; the new jobs credits from withholding available
18 under the Iowa industrial new job training program; the 19 research activities credits; the renewable energy tax credit;
20 and the targeted jobs withholding tax credit.

21 The bill amends the repeal date of the renewable chemical 22 production tax credit from July 1, 2030, to January 1, 2025.

23 The bill provides that the repeal of a tax credit shall 24 not affect tax credits issued, awarded, or allowed prior to 25 January 1, 2025, or affect a taxpayer's ability to claim or 26 redeem such tax credits, including but not limited to any tax
27 credit carryforward amount, and further provides that the bill
28 shall not constitute grounds for rescission or modification 29 of agreements entered into for a tax credit, and that such 30 agreements shall remain in effect until they expire under their 31 own terms and shall be governed by the applicable provisions of 32 law as they existed immediately prior to January 1, 2025.

33 The bill provides that additional legislation is required to 34 fully implement the repeal of these tax credits and requires
35 the director of the department of revenue to prepare draft

1 legislation in compliance with Code section 2.16 for submission
2 to the legislative services agency to implement the repeal of 3 the tax credits.

4 DIVISION II — FUTURE REPEAL OF FUTURE TAX CREDIT PROGRAMS.
5 Division II provides that any tax credit program available
6 against the individual or corporate income tax, the franchise
7 tax, the insurance premiums tax, or the moneys and credits tax,
8 enacted by the general assembly on or after January 1, 2020,
9 is repealed after five years, unless another provision of law
10 provides for an earlier repeal date.

11 The bill provides that the repeal of a tax credit program
12 pursuant to this provision shall not affect the tax credits or 13 tax credit agreements entered into prior to the repeal of the 14 tax credit program in the same manner as described above for 15 the repeal of the existing tax credits.
