13 the container to be sold on the licensed premises at the time
14 of sale.

15 b. The person transferring the wine from the original
16 container to the container to be sold shall be eighteen years
17 of age or more.

18 c. The container to be sold shall be no larger than 19 seventy-two ounces.

20 d. The container to be sold shall be securely sealed by a
21 method authorized by the division that is designed so that if
22 the sealed container is reopened or the seal tampered with, it
23 is visibly apparent that the seal on the container of wine has 24 been tampered with or the sealed container has otherwise been 25 reopened.

26 NEW SUBSECTION. 5. A container of wine other than the 27 original container that is sold and sealed in compliance
28 with the requirements of subsection 4 and the rules of the 29 division shall not be deemed an open container subject to the 30 requirements of sections 321.284 and 321.284A if the sealed
31 container is unopened and the seal has not been tampered with,
32 and the contents of the container have not been partially 33 removed.

13 the container to be sold on the licensed premises at the time
14 of sale.

15 b. The person transferring the wine from the original
16 container to the container to be sold shall be eighteen years
17 of age or more.

18 c. The container to be sold shall be no larger than 19 seventy-two ounces.

20 d. The container to be sold shall be securely sealed by a
21 method authorized by the division that is designed so that if
22 the sealed container is reopened or the seal tampered with, it
23 is visibly apparent that the seal on the container of wine has 24 been tampered with or the sealed container has otherwise been 25 reopened.

26 NEW SUBSECTION. 6. A container of wine other than the 27 original container that is sold and sealed in compliance
28 with the requirements of subsection 5 and the rules of the 29 division shall not be deemed an open container subject to the
30 requirements of sections 321.284 and 321.284A if the sealed
31 container is unopened and the seal has not been tampered with,
32 and the contents of the container have not been partially 33 removed.

EXPLANATION

35 The inclusion of this explanation does not constitute agreement with

1 the explanation's substance by the members of the general assembly.

2 This bill provides that a person holding a class "B" wine
3 permit, class "B" native wine permit, or class "C" native wine
4 permit who is authorized to sell wine for consumption off 5 the licensed premises may sell wine for consumption of the 6 premises in a container other than the original container if 7 certain requirements are met. The bill requires the wine to 8 be transferred from the original container to the container
9 to be sold on the licensed premises, the person transferring 10 the wine shall be 18 years of age or more, the container to be 11 sold shall be no larger than 72 ounces, and the container to 12 be sold shall be securely sealed by a method authorized by the 13 alcoholic beverages division of the department of commerce.
14 The bill also provides that the sealed container of wine is 15 not considered an open container for purposes of those Code
16 sections prohibiting open containers of alcohol in vehicles.
