18 EXPLANATION

19 The inclusion of this explanation does not constitute agreement with 20 the explanation's substance by the members of the general assembly.

21 Under current law, the theft of property that is more than 22 $750 but not more than $1,500, or the theft of any property
23 not more than $500 by a person who has previously been twice
24 convicted of theft, is theft in the third degree, an aggravated 25 misdemeanor. This bill increases the dollar amount limit for 26 the theft of any property by a person who has previously been 27 twice convicted of theft from $500 to $750.

28 Theft in the third degree is an aggravated misdemeanor
29 punishable by confinement for no more than two years and a fine
30 of at least $625 but not more than $6,250.

31 Under current law, a person serving a sentence for a
32 conviction of robbery in the first degree shall be denied 33 parole or work release until the person has served between 34 one-half and seven-tenths of the maximum term of the person's 35 sentence, if the person was convicted on or after July 1, 2018.

S.F. 2225
