10 delegation of parental authority.

11 1. A parent, guardian, or legal custodian of a child, by a 12 properly executed power of attorney, may delegate to another
13 person any authority regarding the care or custody of the child
14 except for any of the following powers:

15 a. The power to consent to the child's marriage.

16 b. The power to consent to the child's adoption.

10 parent subject to licensure by the department of human services

12 6. A power of attorney executed under this chapter by a 13 parent, guardian, or legal custodian shall not constitute 14 abandonment, abuse, or neglect of the child under chapter 232
15 by the parent, guardian, or legal custodian unless the parent,
16 guardian, or legal custodian fails to take custody of the child
17 upon the expiration of the power of attorney.

23 EXPLANATION

24 The inclusion of this explanation does not constitute agreement with 25 the explanation's substance by the members of the general assembly.

26 This bill relates to the temporary delegation of parental
27 authority by the parent, guardian, or legal custodian of a 28 child.

29 The bill provides that a parent, guardian, or legal 30 custodian of a child, by a properly executed power of attorney,
31 may delegate to another person any powers regarding the care
32 or custody of the child except the power to consent to the 33 child's marriage, the power to consent to the child's adoption, 34 the power to consent to the performance or inducement of an 35 abortion on or for the child, and the power to consent to the

1 termination of the parental rights of a parent of the child. A
2 power of attorney executed under the bill must be signed by all 3 parents, guardians, and legal custodians of a child and must 4 be properly acknowledged by a notary. A parent, guardian, or 5 legal custodian shall have the authority to revoke or terminate
6 a power of attorney created under the bill at any time.

7 A power of attorney created under the bill shall be for a
8 period of time not to exceed six months. The parent, guardian, 9 or legal custodian of the child is required to execute a new 10 power of attorney for an additional period of six months, and 11 the power of attorney cannot exceed one year. If the parent, 12 guardian, or legal custodian revokes or terminates the power of 13 attorney, the child shall be returned to the care and custody 14 of the parent, guardian, or legal custodian within 24 hours of 15 the date of the revocation or termination.

16 An agent (person granted authority to act for a parent,
17 guardian, or legal custodian under a power of attorney 18 created in the bill) is required to exercise parental or legal 19 authority on a continuous basis without compensation for the 20 duration of the power of attorney and shall not be considered
21 to be a foster parent subject to licensure by the department
22 of human services pursuant to Code chapter 237 (child foster
23 care facilities). A power of attorney executed under the bill 24 by a parent, guardian, or legal custodian shall not constitute 25 abandonment, abuse, or neglect of the child under Code chapter 26 232 by the parent, guardian, or legal custodian unless the 27 parent, guardian, or legal custodian fails to take custody of 28 the child or to execute a subsequent power of attorney upon the 29 expiration of the power of attorney.

30 The bill provides power of attorney execution requirements
31 and requires the department of human services, in consultation 32 with the judicial branch, to develop forms for carrying out the 33 provisions of the bill.

34 The bill does not apply to a power of attorney created 35 pursuant to Code section 598C.204 (power of attorney under the

1 uniform deployed parents custody and visitation Act).
