

House Resolution 123 - Introduced

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 123

BY SIECK

1 A Resolution honoring the life and message of Sharron
2 Trimmer.

3 WHEREAS, Sharron Trimmer is an Iowa native with a 4 big heart and a love of music; and

5 WHEREAS, when Ms. Trimmer was younger, she gave 6 several vocal performances, won her first singing award
7 at age twelve in a talent show in Omaha, Nebraska, won
8 a Miss Southwest Iowa competition, and even befriended
9 the Everly Brothers who attended her junior high 10 school; and

11 WHEREAS, in Ms. Trimmer's sophomore year of high
12 school, she entered the weekly Teen Talent contest
13 at KFNF Henry Fields radio station where she won the 14 contest every Saturday for two months; and

15 WHEREAS, KFNF radio was so impressed with Ms.
16 Trimmer, they asked her to host the Teen Talent show,
17 which she did for two and one-half years, allowing her 18 to meet and become lifelong friends with Pat Boone; and

19 WHEREAS, in 1964, Ms. Trimmer gave birth to a 20 daughter, Cindy Suzette, who Mr. Boone described as 21 having the voice and personality of an angel. Inspired 22 by Mr. Boone's words, Ms. Trimmer changed Cindy's name
23 to Angelina L'Amour, or simply "Angel"; and

24 WHEREAS, many years later, Angel was diagnosed with 25 cancer, and her prognosis was poor. After having been 26 resuscitated once, Angel woke up and told Ms. Trimmer 27 that she had met an angel who told her to advocate for 28 and take care of people suffering from cancer, and she

1 asked her mother to help her with this request; and 2 WHEREAS, Angel passed away from cancer on July
3 1, 2016, and Ms. Trimmer was diagnosed with ovarian
4 cancer two months later. Despite the diagnosis, Ms.
5 Trimmer worked tirelessly for her daughter's cause to 6 provide services, kindness, and much needed quality of 7 life improvements for those suffering from cancer by 8 advocating and reaching out to patients, hospitals, 9 doctors, nurses, and people providing services to 10 people with cancer; NOW THEREFORE,

11 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, That
12 the House of Representatives honors the efforts Ms.
13 Trimmer has made in her advocacy and service to people 14 suffering from cancer; and

15 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the House of 16 Representatives recognizes Ms. Trimmer's message to 17 care for one another and work together with a "big 18 heart" as a message that is emblematic of our state 19 principles and one that every Iowan must carry with 20 them; and

21 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That upon passage of 22 this resolution, the Chief Clerk of the House of 23 Representatives shall transmit a copy of this 24 resolution to Ms. Sharron Trimmer.
