EXPLANATION

28 The inclusion of this explanation does not constitute agreement with 29 the explanation's substance by the members of the general assembly.

30 This bill establishes a graduated eligibility phase-out
31 program for state child care assistance.

32 The bill provides that at the time of a 12-month eligibility
33 redetermination for a family receiving state child care
34 assistance, the family shall remain eligible for child care
35 assistance, subject to the graduated eligibility phase-out

1 program, if either the family's nonexempt gross monthly 2 income is at least 225 percent but less than 250 percent of 3 the federal poverty level applicable to the family size for 4 children needing basic care or the family's nonexempt gross
5 monthly income is at least 225 percent but less than 275
6 percent of the federal poverty level applicable to the family
7 size for children needing special needs care.

8 The bill provides that a family with children needing basic 9 care shall pay for 33 percent of the family's child care costs
10 if the family's income is above 225 percent but less than 11 235 percent of the federal poverty level; 45 percent of the 12 family's child care costs if the family's income is at or above
13 235 percent but less than 245 percent of the federal poverty
14 level; and 60 percent of the family's child care costs if the 15 family's income is at or above 245 percent but at or less than 16 250 percent of the federal poverty level.

17 A family with children needing special needs care shall pay 18 for 33 percent of the family's child care costs if the family's 19 income is above 225 percent but less than 245 percent of the 20 federal poverty level; 45 percent of the family's child care 21 costs if the family's income is at or above 245 percent but 22 less than 265 percent of the federal poverty level; and 60
23 percent of the family's child care costs if the family's income 24 is at or above 265 percent but at or less than 275 percent of 25 the federal poverty level.

26 The bill provides that the graduated eligibility phase-out
27 program for eligible families shall be implemented no later
28 than July 1, 2022.

29 The bill provides that child care provider reimbursement
30 rates under the graduated eligibility phase-out program
31 shall be the same rates as the child care assistance provider
32 reimbursement rates in effect on July 1, 2021.

33 The department of human services is directed to adopt rules
34 in accordance with the provisions of the bill.
