2 EXPLANATION

3 The inclusion of this explanation does not constitute agreement with 4 the explanation's substance by the members of the general assembly.

5 This bill relates to fur-bearing animals, including the 6 establishment of a raccoon bounty program (program) and fund
7 and the assessment of fur dealer license fees. The bill
8 directs the department of natural resources (DNR) to establish 9 and administer the program, which shall operate during the 10 raccoon trapping season established by the natural resource 11 commission (NRC) by rule. Current NRC rules set the raccoon
12 trapping season as 8 a.m. on the first Saturday in November
13 through February 28 of the succeeding year.

14 The bill establishes a raccoon bounty fund in the state
15 treasury under the control of DNR. The raccoon bounty fund
16 shall consist of moneys deposited in the raccoon bounty fund,
17 including moneys collected from the civil penalties assessed 18 under the bill and gifts and donations received for the 19 raccoon bounty fund. Moneys in the raccoon bounty fund are 20 appropriated to DNR to pay participants in the program and to 21 administer the program.

22 The bill requires trappers to check set traps every 24
23 hours. The bill authorizes a resident with a valid fur
24 harvester license to relinquish to DNR the whole tail of a
25 raccoon taken during the raccoon trapping season. A resident 26 shall receive $5 from DNR for each whole raccoon tail the 27 resident relinquishes to DNR at a monthly pickup event held in 28 every county. DNR is appropriated 50 cents for each raccoon
29 tail relinquished at the monthly pickup event. The bill 30 requires NRC to adopt rules for the program and determine the 31 details for monthly pickup events for raccoon tails. The bill
32 prohibits a person with a fur dealer license from participating 33 in the program.

34 A person who relinquishes or attempts to relinquish a 35 raccoon tail that was not taken in this state, was already

1 relinquished to the department, or was taken outside of the 2 raccoon trapping season is guilty of a simple misdemeanor. A
3 simple misdemeanor is punishable by confinement for no more
4 than 30 days and a fine of at least $105 but not more than $855.
5 DNR shall assess penalties for violations, which may include
6 license revocation, suspension of trapping privileges for up 7 to two years, and a civil penalty of not more than $250 per 8 offense. The department shall gather trapping data to ensure 9 trappers are not excessively harvesting raccoons or committing 10 fraud.

11 A person who unlawfully takes a raccoon is also liable 12 for damages in the amount of $200 for each raccoon taken as 13 provided in Code section 481A.130. A person who unlawfully
14 takes a raccoon may also be subject to a criminal scheduled
15 fine of $75 as provided in Code section 805.8B. All unlawfully 16 taken raccoons shall be seized by the director of DNR or any 17 peace officer and relinquished to a representative of NRC.

18 The bill includes a raccoon tail pickup event as a location
19 for a fur dealer to conduct business. Under the bill, a 20 fur dealer does not need to purchase a location permit to 21 operate at a raccoon tail pickup event. Further, a resident 22 or nonresident fur dealer does not have to pay a fee to obtain 23 a location permit.

24 The bill also creates a maximum fur dealer license fee
25 of $50, regardless of resident status. Current law allows 26 residents from another state to purchase a fur dealer's license 27 for a set fee unless that state has reciprocity with Iowa, in 28 which case the nonresident shall pay the reciprocity fee amount 29 that is less than the nonresident license fee but more than the 30 Iowa resident license fee.
