

House Resolution 120 - Introduced

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 120

BY SIEGRIST

1 A Resolution recognizing and congratulating Iowa State
2 University (ISU) wrestler David Carr for his storied
3 collegiate wrestling career.

4 WHEREAS, David Carr entered the 2024 National 5 Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I
6 wrestling championship tournament as the fourth seed
7 in the 165-pound weight class, and secured victories
8 against the fifth, second, and top seeded wrestlers
9 on his way to earning his second NCAA individual 10 title; and

11 WHEREAS, the championship match pitted him against 12 an opponent from the top team in the nation, Carr 13 relied on his experience, strength, and tactics to 14 strike early for key points in the first five seconds 15 of the match before making a third-period comeback and 16 securing the decisive point via riding time, becoming 17 the 17th Cyclone wrestler to win multiple national 18 championships; and

19 WHEREAS, having never finished lower than 20 third place (2022) on the final podium at the NCAA
21 championship, David bookended a runner-up finish (2023)
22 by skipping off the mat as a two-time national champion 23 (2021 at 157 pounds and 2024 at 165 pounds); and

24 WHEREAS, the Canton, Ohio, native ranked fourth in 25 Cyclone wrestling career winning percentage (.960),
26 posted a 120-5 record, became a five-time conference 27 finalist and four-time conference champion, is one of 28 only four Cyclones to win four individual conference

1 titles, and became the first five-time All-American in 2 program history; and

3 WHEREAS, fulfilling a goal he had for the Cyclone
4 team, along with his head coach and Big 12 Coach of 5 the Year, Kevin Dresser, Carr lead the resurgence
6 of Cyclone wrestling, helping the Cyclones win a
7 Big 12 conference championship team title and earn a 8 fourth-place team finish at the NCAA championship; and

9 WHEREAS, Nate, Carr's father and three-time national 10 champion at ISU from 1981 to 1983, and David are one
11 of only four father-son duos to each win multiple NCAA 12 Division I national titles, with David's most recent 13 being the 71st in Cyclone history; and

14 WHEREAS, off the mat, David also excelled in the 15 classroom, ending his career as a four-time National 16 Wrestling Coaches Association Scholar All-American,
17 a four-time Academic All-Big 12 team member, and a
18 College Sports Communicator Academic All-American 19 (2023); NOW THEREFORE,

20 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
21 That the House of Representatives congratulates
22 and honors David Carr for his outstanding wrestling
23 accomplishments, culminating in the 2024 NCAA wrestling 24 championship title at 165 pounds; and

25 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That upon passage, the Chief
26 Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a
27 copy of this resolution to David Carr; ISU wrestling
28 head coach, Kevin Dresser; ISU director of athletics,
29 Jamie Pollard; and ISU president, Wendy Wintersteen.
