26 This bill relates to the disposition of collected criminal 27 case fines.

28 Current law provides that the clerk of the district court
29 shall distribute the fine amount for a criminal violation that 30 occurred within the boundaries of a county as follows: 91
31 percent to the state court administrator and 9 percent to the 32 county treasurer for deposit in the county general fund where the 33 violation occurred.

34 The bill provides that the fine amount for a criminal 35 violation that occurred within the boundaries of a county shall

1 be distributed as follows: 85 percent to the state court
2 administrator, 8 percent to the county treasurer for deposit
3 in the county general fund where the violation occurred, and 7
4 percent to the victim restitution fund established in the bill.

5 The bill provides that a victim restitution fund is 6 established as a separate fund in the state treasury. Moneys
7 deposited in the fund will be administered by the department
8 of justice and used for the purposes of Code section 910.1(6), 9 which concerns restitution for "pecuniary damages", and for 10 restitution for the death of a victim pursuant to Code section
11 910.3B. "Pecuniary damages" means all damages to the extent not 12 paid by an insurer on an insurance claim by a victim, which 13 a victim could recover against the offender in a civil action
14 arising out of the same facts or event, except punitive damages
15 and damages for pain, suffering, mental anguish, and loss of 16 consortium, and includes damages for wrongful death and expenses
17 incurred for psychiatric or psychological services or counseling 18 or other counseling for the victim, which became necessary as 19 a direct result of the criminal activity. Code section 910.3B
20 provides for the payment of at least $150,000 to a victim's 21 estate or a victim's heirs in addition to pecuniary damages.

22 The bill provides that notwithstanding Code section 8.33, 23 moneys in the fund that remain unencumbered or unobligated at 24 the close of a fiscal year shall not revert but shall remain
25 available for expenditure for the purposes designated.
