8 2. A motion under this section to correct an award may be 9 joined with a motion to vacate or amend the award under section 10 598A.19.

11 3. Unless a motion under section 598A.19 is pending, the 12 court may confirm a corrected award under section 598A.16.

13 Sec. 19. NEW SECTION. 598A.19 Vacation, amendment, or 14 confirmation by court of unconfirmed award.

25 c. The arbitrator refused to postpone a hearing on showing of 30 d. The arbitrator exceeded the arbitrator's powers.

17 of the child.

18 4. The court may determine a motion under subsection 2 or 3 19 as follows:

29 of corruption, fraud, or other undue means is known or, by the 30 exercise of reasonable care, should be known to the party filing 31 the motion.

32 6. If the court under this section vacates an award for 33 a reason other than the absence of an enforceable arbitration 34 agreement, the court may order a rehearing before an arbitrator.
35 The rehearing shall be before another arbitrator if the reason

1 for vacating the award is any of the following:

2 a. The award was procured by corruption, fraud, or other 3 undue means.

4 b. There was evident partiality, corruption, or misconduct by 5 the arbitrator.

6 7. If the court under this section denies a motion to vacate

25 award or judgment.

26 If a party requests under law of this state other than this

29 confirmation:

30 1. The parties shall proceed under the dispute resolution 31 method specified in the award or judgment.

9 This bill creates the Iowa uniform family law arbitration Act.
10 The bill provides definitions, including the terms "arbitrator", 11 "child custody dispute", "child support dispute", and "family law 12 dispute".

13 The bill governs the arbitration in a family dispute but does 14 not allow an arbitrator to grant a legal separation, a divorce, a 15 dissolution of marriage, or an annulment; to terminate parental 16 rights, to grant an adoption or a guardianship of a child or 17 protected person; or to determine the status of dependency of a 18 child or the support of a child.

19 The bill provides that an arbitration agreement must be in 20 a record signed by the parties. The agreement must identify 21 the arbitrator, an arbitration organization, or a method of 22 selecting an arbitrator and identify the family law dispute the 23 parties intend to arbitrate. The bill provides that a family 24 law dispute that arises after the arbitration agreement is made 25 unenforceable unless the parties affirm the agreement in a record 26 after the dispute arises or the agreement was entered during a 27 family law proceeding and the court approved or incorporated the 28 agreement in an order issued in the proceeding. If there is an 29 objection to the arbitration agreement on the grounds that it is 30 unenforceable or the agreement does not involve a family dispute, 31 the court shall determine whether it is enforceable or includes 32 an appropriate dispute.

33 The bill provides that notice for arbitration shall be made 34 either in a manner agreed upon or by Code section 679A.15 35 (arbitration — applications to district court).

1 The bill requires motions for judicial relief to be filed with 2 the court with the appropriate jurisdiction. A party may file a 3 motion to compel arbitration by the court. The bill also allows 4 a party to file a motion for judicial relief to terminate an 5 arbitration. The bill allows upon motion of a party for the 6 court to order consolidation of separate arbitrations involving 7 the same parties and a common issue of law or fact if necessary 8 for resolution of the family law dispute.

9 The bill provides that an arbitrator must be an attorney at 10 law, a former attorney at law on inactive status, or a retired 11 judge and have successfully completed a combined five hours of 12 instruction in an accredited continuing legal education course on 13 domestic violence and child abuse.

14 The bill requires an arbitrator to disclose any information
15 a reasonable person would believe would affect the arbitrator's 16 impartiality. The arbitrator, the attorneys, and parties are 17 all required to disclose information that would change the 18 impartiality of the arbitrator or the arbitrator's ability to 19 make a timely award. The bill provides that if a timely 20 disclosure was not made, a party may file a motion to suspend the 21 arbitration no later than 15 days after such failure. The bill 22 provides that failure to disclose can also result in the vacating 23 of an award and other appropriate relief. Upon discharge of an 24 arbitrator, the parties may select a new arbitrator or request 25 that the court select one.

26 The bill allows a party to an arbitration to be represented 27 by counsel, be accompanied by an individual who will not be 28 used as a witness or advocate, and to fully participate in the 29 arbitration. Parties are not allowed to communicate ex parte 30 with the arbitrator.

31 The bill provides that prior to the selection of an 32 arbitrator, the court may enter a temporary order for the 33 family law dispute. After the selection of an arbitrator, the 34 arbitrator may make a temporary award.

35 The bill provides that if a party is subject to a protection

1 order and the arbitrator determines there is a reasonable 2 basis to believe a party is the victim of domestic violence 3 or a party's safety or ability to participate effectively in 4 arbitration is otherwise at risk, the arbitrator shall stay the 5 arbitration and refer the parties to court. The arbitration 6 shall not resume until the party at risk affirms the agreement 7 in a record and the court determines that the affirmation is 8 informed and voluntary, the arbitration is not inconsistent with 9 the protection order, and reasonable procedures are in place to 10 protect the party. The bill provides that if an arbitrator 11 reasonably believes that a child subject to the matter is abused 12 or neglected, the arbitration shall be terminated and the abuse 13 or neglect shall be reported to the court or another appropriate 14 authority.

15 The bill requires that the arbitrator conduct the arbitration
16 in a manner considered appropriate for a fair and expeditious 17 disposition. The bill provides the arbitrator the following 18 powers: to select the rules for the arbitration; conduct the 19 prehearing conferences and the hearing; administer oaths to 20 parties and witnesses; allow any party to conduct prehearing
21 discovery by interrogatories, deposition, requests for production 22 of documents, or other means; determine the admissibility 23 of evidence; and subpoena witnesses or documents upon the 24 arbitrator's own initiative or request of a party; the power 25 to meet with a child, appoint a representative for the child, 26 and impose procedures to protect a party or child from risk of 27 harm; and to sanction bad faith conduct according to state law 28 governing misconduct in family law proceedings.

29 The bill does not require an arbitration hearing to be 30 recorded.

31 The bill provides that an award shall be made in a record, 32 dated and signed by the arbitrator and the parties shall be 33 given notice. An award is not enforceable as a judgment until 34 confirmed by the court.

35 The bill requires the court to confirm an award given by

1 an arbitrator. The court shall confirm an award if all the 2 parties agree in a record to confirmation or the time period
3 to correct an unconfirmed award or vacate an award has expired.
4 The bill provides that if an award relates to a child custody 5 dispute or a child support dispute, the court shall confirm 6 the award if the court finds that the award complies with the 7 bill and Code chapter 598 (dissolution of marriage and domestic 8 relations) or 600B (paternity and obligation for support) and 9 is in the best interests of the child. The bill provides that 10 upon confirmation, the award is enforceable as a judgment and 11 that unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties, the arbitration 12 proceeds are confidential.

13 The bill allows the arbitrator, upon motion of a party 14 not later than 20 days after notice of the award, to make a 15 correction of an award. For an unconfirmed award, the parties 16 may make a motion for correction and a motion to amend or 17 vacate no later than 30 days after the arbitrator has given 18 notice of the award. The bill allows the court to vacate 19 an unconfirmed award if the moving party shows that the award 20 was procured by corruption, fraud, or other undue means; there 21 was an evident partiality by the arbitrator, corruption by 22 the arbitrator, or other misconduct by the arbitrator; the 23 arbitrator, refused to postpone a hearing, consider evidence 24 material to the controversy, or otherwise did not conduct the 25 hearing impartially; the arbitrator exceeded the arbitrator's 26 powers; no arbitration agreement exists; or the arbitration was 27 conducted without proper notice. In a child custody dispute, the 28 bill provides that the court shall vacate an unconfirmed award if 29 the moving party establishes that award does not comply with the 30 bill, Code chapter 600B (paternity and obligation for support), 31 or is contrary to the best interests of the child; the statement 32 of reasons in the award is inadequate for court review of the 33 award; or a ground for vacating the award under the bill exists.
34 The court is required to determine a motion in a child custody 35 dispute based on the record of the arbitration hearing and facts

1 occurring after the hearing. If there is no record for the 2 hearing, the court shall consider it de novo. The bill requires 3 that a motion to vacate or amend an award must be filed not later 4 than 30 days after an arbitrator gives notice of an award, the 5 arbitrator makes a correction to the award, or a party moves to 6 vacate the award.

7 The bill allows the parties to arbitrate any dispute arising 8 from the meaning or effect of a confirmed award.

9 The bill requires the court to enter a judgment after 10 confirming, vacating, or amending an award.

11 The bill provides that the parties may modify an award either 12 by the dispute resolution specified in the judgment or award or, 13 if the award or judgment does not specify a dispute-resolution 14 method, the parties may agree to arbitrate or proceed under the 15 relevant Code chapter.

16 The bill allows an order granting or denying a motion 17 to compel arbitration; granting or denying a motion to stay 18 arbitration; confirming or denying confirmation of an award; 19 correcting an award; vacating an award without directing a 20 rehearing; and final judgment to be appealed.

21 The bill does not include a section from the uniform act 22 relating to the immunity of arbiters.

23 The bill applies to arbitration of a family law dispute under 24 an arbitration agreement made on or after the bill's effective 25 date. If an arbitration agreement was made before the bill's 26 effective date, parties may agree in a record that the bill's 27 provisions will apply to the arbitration.
