30 Act, beginning January 1, 2026.

31 EXPLANATION

32 The inclusion of this explanation does not constitute agreement with 33 the explanation's substance by the members of the general assembly.

34 This bill amends provisions relating to income eligibility
35 levels for pregnant women and infants under the Medicaid program.

1 Current law provides that an infant or a pregnant woman whose 2 family income is not more than 215 percent of the federal poverty
3 level, if the infant or woman is otherwise eligible, is eligible
4 for Medicaid. The bill amends the income eligibility level to 5 375 percent.

6 The bill requires the department of health and human services
7 (HHS) to submit a Medicaid state plan amendment to the 8 centers for Medicare and Medicaid services of the United States
9 department of health and human services (CMS) for approval in 10 accordance with the provisions in federal law to provide 12
11 months of continuous postpartum eligibility under the Medicaid
12 program to a pregnant woman whose family income while pregnant 13 is at or below 375 percent of the federal poverty level for 14 the household size, beginning January 1, 2026. The bill
15 also requires HHS to submit a children's health insurance
16 program state plan amendment to CMS to update infant eligibility
17 consistent with the provisions of the bill, beginning January 1, 18 2026.
