SENATE FILE 437
BY COMMITTEE ON STATE
GOVERNMENT

(SUCCESSOR TO SSB 1062)

(As Amended and Passed by the Senate March 18, 2015)

A BILL FOR

1 An Act providing time off from work to attend presidential 2 precinct caucuses, making penalties applicable, and 3 including effective date provisions.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF IOWA:

1 Section 1. Section 39A.5, subsection 1, paragraph b, Code
2 2015, is amended by adding the following new subparagraph:

3 NEW SUBPARAGRAPH. (3) As an employer, denying an employee
4 the privilege conferred by section 43.91A to attend a precinct
5 caucus, or subjecting an employee to a penalty because of the 6 exercise of that privilege.

7 Sec. 2. NEW SECTION. 43.91A Employees entitled to time to 8 participate in presidential precinct caucuses.

9 1. Any person entitled to participate in a precinct caucus
10 held as part of the presidential nominating process in this 11 state who is required to be present at work for an employer
12 during the four-hour period starting one hour prior to the time 13 the precinct caucus starts is entitled to take unpaid leave for 14 as much of that four-hour period as is necessary to participate
15 in the precinct caucus except as provided by this section.
16 Application by any employee for such absence shall be made to 17 the employee's employer individually and in writing at least 18 two weeks prior to the time the precinct caucus is scheduled to 19 start. The employee shall not be liable for any loss of wages 20 or salary or any other penalty except for the loss of wages or 21 salary for the hours of unpaid leave actually used.

22 2. a. An application by an employee for an absence may be 23 denied by an employer if all the following circumstances exist:

24 (1) The person is employed in an emergency services position
25 which shall include peace officer, fire fighter, emergency 26 medical personnel, and any other position that affects the 27 protection of public health or safety, or is employed by an 28 entity that would experience severe economic or operational 29 disruption due to the person's absence.

30 (2) The employer filed a written notice with the 31 commissioner at least seven days prior to the date of the 32 precinct caucus specifying exigent circumstances justifying the 33 denial of such leave for personnel described in subparagraph
34 (1) and declaring the minimum number of such personnel, 35 by position, needed to protect public health and safety or

1 maintain minimum operational capacity, as applicable. A copy
2 of this written notice shall be provided to employees of the 3 employer.

4 (3) The number of persons employed in a position that did 5 not apply for an absence is less than the minimum number of 6 persons in that position needed by the employer to protect 7 public health and safety or maintain minimum operational 8 capacity, as applicable.

9 b. If the circumstances in paragraph "a" exist as to a 10 particular position of the employer, then the employer may deny 11 the minimum number of employees in that position applying for 12 an absence that is needed to yield the minimum staffing level 13 for that position as specified in the written notice to the 14 commissioner. The selection of which employees applying for 15 an absence shall be denied an absence shall be made without 16 regard to political party affiliation, political belief, or 17 affiliation with or support for any candidate, or for any of 18 the grounds for which employment discrimination is prohibited
19 in this state.

20 3. This section shall not be construed to prohibit an 21 employer from doing any of the following:

22 a. Authorizing paid leave to all affected employees.

23 b. Allowing all affected employees the option to work
24 additional compensatory hours to the extent otherwise permitted
25 by law, at a time designated by the employer not in conflict
26 with the time needed for caucus participation, equal in number 27 to the number of hours taken to participate in the presidential 28 precinct caucus as provided in subsection 1. The option of 29 working compensatory hours may be exercised individually by 30 each employee. Work performed during the compensatory hours
31 shall be compensated in the same manner as work performed
32 during regular hours.

33 Sec. 3. EFFECTIVE UPON ENACTMENT. This Act, being deemed of 34 immediate importance, takes effect upon enactment.
