1 Section 1. NEW SECTION. 598.21H Suspension of child support
2 — child in need of assistance proceedings.

3 1. Subject to 28 U.S.C. §1738B, the court may enter an ex
4 parte order suspending a child support or medical support order
5 entered under chapter 234, 252A, 252C, 252F, 600B, or this 6 chapter if all of the following conditions are met:

7 a. A dispositional or permanency order in juvenile court,
8 pursuant to chapter 232, places the custody or physical care of a
9 child with a person who is obligated to pay support for the child
10 pursuant to an order entered under chapter 234, 252A, 252C, 252F,
11 600B, or this chapter.

12 b. The juvenile court files a notice of change of custody
13 pursuant to section 232.102, subsection 11, or section 232.104,
14 subsection 11.

15 c. The person obligated to pay support files an application
16 requesting a suspension of support in the case in which child
17 support is ordered. The application shall identify the county
18 and docket number of the juvenile court proceeding, and the date
19 of the dispositional or permanency order, that placed the custody
20 or physical care of the child with the person obligated to pay
21 support. An application filed by a person obligated to pay 22 support shall also include the names and current addresses of the 23 payor and payee, and shall attach a copy of the notice of change
24 of custody filed under section 232.102, subsection 11, or section
25 232.104, subsection 11.

26 2. The order suspending support shall be effective on the 27 date the next support payment is due, and that payment is 28 suspended. Any party, or child support services, may file
29 an objection to the order suspending support within twenty-one
30 calendar days after the date the order is entered. The court
31 shall schedule a hearing on the objection not later than fifteen 32 calendar days after the date the objection is filed, and provide 33 notice of the hearing to the parties. Unless otherwise ordered
34 by the court, the ex parte order shall become final and terminate 35 the support obligation sixty calendar days following the date the

1 juvenile court proceeding terminates.

2 3. The court may enter an ex parte order terminating a
3 suspension ordered under subsection 1 if all of the following
4 conditions are met:

5 a. The juvenile court returns the custody or physical care of 6 the child to the person who was previously entitled to receive 7 support for the child.

8 b. The juvenile court files a notice of change of custody
9 pursuant to section 232.101, subsection 11, or section 232.104,
10 subsection 11, to acknowledge the change of a child's custody
11 back to the person previously entitled to receive support for the 12 child.

13 c. The person who was previously entitled to receive support 14 for the child, or child support services, files an application in 15 the case in which the support was ordered, and then suspended,
16 to request that the suspension be terminated. The application
17 shall identify the county and docket number of the juvenile 18 court proceeding, and the date of the dispositional or permanency 19 order, that returned custody or physical care of the child to 20 the person who was previously entitled to receive support for 21 the child. An application filed by a person who was previously 22 entitled to receive support for a child shall also include the 23 names and current address of the payor and payee, and shall 24 attach a copy of the notice of change of custody filed under 25 section 232.102, subsection 11, or section 232.104, subsection
26 11, acknowledging the change of a child's custody back to the 27 person previously entitled to receive support for the child.

28 4. An order terminating the suspension of support shall 29 be effective on the date the next support payment would be 30 due pursuant to the original support order, and the suspension
31 of that payment is terminated. Any party, or child support 32 services, may file an objection to the order ending the 33 suspension of support within twenty-one calendar days of the date
34 the order is entered. The court shall schedule a hearing on the 35 objection not later than fifteen calendar days after the date

1 the objection is filed, and provide notice of the hearing to the 2 parties.

3 5. A court shall waive any court costs or filing fee for an 4 application to suspend support, or an application to terminate
5 the suspension of support, filed under this section. The supreme 6 court shall prescribe standard forms for persons to use under 7 this section, and shall distribute the forms to the clerks of the 8 district court.

9 6. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, if a
10 juvenile court order placing custody or physical care of a child
11 is being used as the basis for an application or an ex parte
12 order under this section, the notice of change of custody issued
13 by the juvenile court pursuant to section 232.102, subsection
14 11, or section 232.104, subsection 11, shall be disclosed upon 15 request to child support services without a court order.

17 following new subsection:
