WHAT ARE LEGISLATORS?

An Iowa legislator is someone who has many roles—lawmaker, a representative of constituents’ interests, and an overseer of state citizen interests.

To be an Iowa legislator, a person must be a United States citizen, must have been an Iowa resident for at least one year, and a resident of the district that person will represent for at least 60 days prior to the election. Senators, who serve four-year terms, must be at least 25 years of age, while Representatives serve two-year terms and must be at least 21 years of age.

WHAT IS THEIR JOB?

Lawmaking
• Proposing, studying, discussing, and voting on legislation
• Appropriating money to state agencies and programs
• Creating, eliminating, and modifying Iowa laws and programs

Representing
• Serving constituents living in each district
• Functioning as a liaison between citizens and Iowa government

Evaluating
• Overseeing the work of departments and agencies funded by the Legislature
• Ensuring that laws are being carried out according to legislative intent
• Confirming the Governor’s appointments and responding to vetoes
