The 2022 Cash Rent Survey was sent out in March 2022 to farmers, landowners, agricultural lenders, and professional farm managers. The survey asked for rental rate values for the current year across a county for high, medium, and low quality tillable ground (based on corn yields), as well as for pasture and hay. The averages are a dollar value per acre for the year.

For more information, visit Iowa State University Extension and Outreach: Cash Rent Survey and Historic Cash Corn and Soybean Prices