

CLAUS L. ANDERSON

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Claus L. Anderson, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Claus L. Anderson was born March 12, 1871, in Montgomery County, Iowa. He was educated in the rural schools.

On December 20, 1905, he married Charlotte Hannah Blade.

Mr. Anderson served as township clerk for thirteen years and was active in farming interests.

Mr. Anderson served in the House of Representatives during the Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth sessions of the General Assembly.

He passed away June 23, 1961, at the Cottage Rest Home in Red Oak, Iowa. Surviving him is a niece, Doris Blade Anderson, Red Oak, Iowa.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Sixtieth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable Claus L. Anderson the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful and useful public servant, and the House by this resolution would express its appreciation of his service, and tender its sympathy to the remaining member of his family.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the members of the family of the deceased.

CONRAD OSSIAN,
JAMES E. BRILES,
WILLIAM J. SCHERLE,
Committee.

 WALTER W. ANDERSON

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Walter W. Anderson, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Walter W. Anderson was born January 7, 1872, in Jefferson, Iowa. He attended the high school in Jefferson and later took a business course in Des Moines.

In 1898 he moved to Scranton, where he was engaged in the banking business and in farming, and was president of the Bank of Scranton.

Mr. Anderson served in the House of Representatives during the sessions of the Thirty-fifth, Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh General Assemblies and also served in the Senate during the sessions of the Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth General Assemblies.

He later returned to Jefferson and passed away on January 4, 1962. His wife, Mrs. Sadie Anderson, survives him.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Sixtieth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable Walter W. Anderson the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful and useful servant, and the House by this resolution would express its appreciation of his service, and tender its sympathy to the members of his family.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

C. RAYMOND FISHER,
BERNARD J. MURPHY,
ELMER F. LANGE,
Committee.

GEORGE L. BROWN

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable George L. Brown, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

George L. Brown, son of Owen and Etta Brown, was born May 30, 1897, at Shenandoah, in Page County, Iowa, and died at Onawa, Iowa, October 7, 1959, at the age of 62 years.

He was educated in the public schools of Shenandoah and was graduated from the Des Moines College of Pharmacy.

He married Annis Falk December 30, 1924. To this union one son and one daughter were born.

Mr. Brown served in the U. S. Navy during World War I. He was a member of the Congregational Church of Onawa and a member of its board of trustees. He was past master of Vesper Lodge 223, A.F. and A.M., past commander of the David McNeil Post of the American Legion, past president of the Iowa Pharmaceutical Association; was first president of the Kiwanis Club of Onawa and had a perfect attendance record for a period of 18 years; was a member of the Queen Esther Chapter, O.E.S.; Sioux City Consistory 5, Abu-Beder Shrine, Sioux City, Iowa. He served three years on the Iowa Board of Pharmacy and was director of the Onawa State Bank.

Mr. Brown, a Republican, served in the Iowa House of Representatives in 1947 and 1948, as a representative of Monona County.

Surviving Mr. Brown are his widow; one son, George O. Brown of Onawa; one daughter, Mrs. Dan Thomson of Elk Grove Village, Illinois; five grandchildren and three sisters.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Sixtieth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable George L. Brown, the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful and useful public servant, and the House by this resolution would express its appreciation of his service, and tender its sympathy to the members of his family.
