

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

SENATE CHAMBER,
DES MOINES, IOWA, APRIL 12, A. D. 1917.

Senate met pursuant to adjournment at 7:30 p. m., President Moore presiding.

GEORGE W. BALL.

Senator Foster, from a special committee, submitted the following report and moved its adoption:

WHEREAS, The Honorable George W. Ball, who was an honored member of the Senate in the sessions of the Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth General Assembly, has passed away since the last session of the General Assembly, and

WHEREAS, It is fitting that official cognizance of this sad event be taken by this body:

Be It Resolved, That the Senate recognizes in the death of the Honorable George W. Ball a great bereavement to the community in which he lived and a distinct loss to the State of Iowa, which he served with distinguished ability and unquestioned fidelity. He filled many positions of public trust with great usefulness to the people whom he served and with honor to himself. He was for many years a conspicuous member of the legal profession, and left a record of long, honorable and useful service.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Senate and a copy be transmitted to his family.

O. A. BYINGTON,
JNO. W. FOSTER,
D. S. FLECK.

The resolutions were adopted unanimously by a rising vote.

In the absence of Senator Byington, Senator Foster moved that the resolution be adopted and Senator Newberry rose to say the following:

“Geo. W. Ball was a fine lawyer, one whom you could trust and honor and his work in this body has been most useful.”

Senator Laffer, from a special committee, submitted the following report and moved its adoption:
