

and brilliant practitioner during the balance of his life, excepting the time occupied as a member of the General Assembly of Iowa. Elected as Representative of the Twenty-fifth General Assembly, and chosen State Senator for the Twenty-sixth, Twenty-sixth Extra, Twenty-seventh, Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth sessions, being a member of the Code Commission of 1897. He took a most important part in the legislation of this State, and acquitted himself with great honor and able statesmanship. He was President of the Iowa Bar Association, and member of the International Congress of Law, Vice Commander of the Iowa Department of the G. A. R., Grand Orator and Grand Treasurer of the Iowa Grand Lodge of Masons, associate editor of the Masonic Digest and a member of the Iowa Vicksburg National Park Commission.

A man widely known and highly honored and ever respected as having an unimpeachable character. Married three times, he leaves, as the children of his first wife, one daughter and one son, who honor his highly cherished memory, besides his widow. He was deliberate, conservative, reserved, dignified, but condescending and sympathetic, active, fearless in controversy, sharp with sarcasm, but ever tactful and thoroughly successful.

Resolved, That in the loss of this most highly honored citizen the family lose a faithful parent and husband, the community an enterprising and influential citizen, the legal fraternity a brilliant jurist and practitioner, the State a notable statesman, and the country a patriot who has left a lasting impress through his life's work upon the page of history.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered in the Journals of the Senate and House, respectively, and each member of the family furnished an engrossed copy by the Secretary and Chief Clerk.

A. F. N. HAMBLETON,
H. L. PIERCE,
D. W. DOW,
W. G. JONES,
C. J. A. ERICSON,

Joint Committee of Senate and House.

Senator Jones moved the adoption of the resolution.

Senator Hughes spoke as follows:

MR. PRESIDENT AND SENATORS: My heart is in the resolution before us. Lucian Blanchard was one of the Boys in Blue on the firing line in the Civil War. He was a gallant member of Company K, Twenty-eighth Iowa, while I was a member of Company G of the same regiment. I was a member of the House when he was an honored and influential member of the Senate. He agreed with me that the little bronze button was a possession of more value than any title that might be conferred by man. He was highly honored by his fellow citizens, and deservedly so. I heartily second the motion for the adoption of the resolution.
