

victions, loyal to the state, its people and to the matters committed to his care. He lived a long, honorable and active life and deserved the honors which came to him.

The funeral services were held at the residence and at St. Anthony's church. The burial, which was private, was held in St. Marguerite's cemetery.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Forty-sixth General Assembly of the State of Iowa, in Regular Session, That in the death of August A. Balluff the people of Scott county and the people of the entire state of Iowa have sustained a great loss. Everywhere he was known as a man honored and trusted, a man of sterling quality and irreproachable character.

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the Journal of the House, and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

HONORABLE CLAYTON E. BRONSON

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee appointed to prepare resolutions commemorative of the life, character and public services of the late Honorable Clayton E. Bronson, of Black Hawk county, Iowa, beg leave to submit the following report:

Clayton E. Bronson was born on a farm near Raymond, Black Hawk county, Iowa, on September 1, 1881. He moved to Waterloo with his parents in 1889 and was graduated from East High school in January, 1903, at which time he entered the insurance business established by his father, and continued with the Bronson Insurance agency until the time of his death, which occurred on January 28, 1935.

He was united in marriage on October 6, 1910, to Miss Nina Wangler, who with five children, Jean, Steve, Genevieve, Louis and Clayton, Jr., mourn the death of their beloved husband and father.

In politics, Mr. Bronson was a republican and served as representative from Black Hawk county in the Thirty-sixth General Assembly. He took an active interest in community affairs, and stood high in the confidence and esteem of his associates. He was at all times a perfect gentleman, genial, kindhearted, and devoted to his family and his friends.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That in the passing of the Honorable Clayton E. Bronson, the state has lost a valuable and honored citizen, and the House would tender by this resolution, its sincere sympathy to the surviving members of his family in their sorrow, and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House, and that the Chief Clerk be instructed to send an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

ARCH W. MCFARLANE,
J. E. CRAVEN,
JAS. F. JOHNSON,

Unanimously adopted, April 18, 1935.

HONORABLE CHARLES B. CAMPBELL

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee appointed to prepare resolutions commemorative of the life, character and public services of the late Honorable Charles B. Campbell, of Black Hawk county, Iowa, beg leave to submit the following report:

Charles B. Campbell was born July 2, 1841, in Columbia county, New York. He was the son of John A. and Efferiana Campbell. He came to Waterloo in 1865 and in 1872 settled on 360 acres of land in Poyner and Fox townships where he engaged extensively in the stock raising business. He moved to a farm adjoining the town of Raymond in 1892 and in 1902 moved to Waterloo where he resided until his death, February 25, 1932.

He was united in marriage on January 14, 1879, to Martha H. Woodward, now deceased. Two sons, Herbert Ray Campbell of Valier, Montana, and Frank T. Campbell of Waterloo, Iowa, mourn the death of their beloved father.

In politics Mr. Campbell was a republican and served as a representative from Black Hawk county in the Fifteenth General Assembly. Later he was a member of the county board of supervisors for several terms.

He was a member of Grace Methodist Episcopal church in Waterloo. He was initiated into the Waterloo lodge, A. F. & A. M., in January, 1867, and a fifty-year membership certificate was presented to him in 1918.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That in the passing of the Honorable Charles B. Campbell, the state has lost a valuable and honored citizen, and the House would tender by this resolution, its sincere sympathy to the surviving members of his family in their sorrow, and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House, and that the Chief Clerk be instructed to send an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

ARCH W. MCFARLANE,
J. E. CUNDY,
EDWARD N. OVE,

Committee.

Unanimously adopted, April 18, 1935.
