

ery. His interests were varied during his lifetime, with a distinct interest in agriculture.

Mr. Brown, a Republican, served Mahaska County as a representative in the Fifty-second, Fifty-second Extra, Fifty-third, Fifty-fourth, and Fifty-fifth General Assemblies. During his service in the General Assembly, he served as chairman of the Roads and Highways, Dairy and Food, and House Steering Committees.

Mr. Brown's sudden and untimely death occurred at Oskaloosa, Iowa, on April 12, 1976. He left to survive him his wife, a son, two daughters and sons-in-law, two grandsons, and a host of relatives, friends, and acquaintances.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Sixty-sixth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the late Honorable Carroll L. Brown, the state has lost a valuable and honored citizen and the House would express its appreciation of his character and public service and tender, by this resolution, its sincere and heartfelt sympathy to his beloved family in their great sorrow and loss.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House, and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

BERT FULLERTON

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Bert Fullerton, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Bert Fullerton was born October 11, 1902, in Correctionville, Iowa, farming in that area all of his life. He also was a livestock feeder and farm-power contractor.

He was first married to Laura Brune who died in 1962, and in 1967 he married Frances Hayes. He was a lay leader and Sunday School teacher at the United Methodist Church in Correctionville. He served eight years on the Correctionville Board of Education, was a member of the town council and served 22 years as township clerk.

He was a member of the Masonic Lodge, Eastern Star, Sioux City Consistory and Abu Bekr Shrine, and, in addition, was very active in the Republican party in his area.

Mr. Fullerton, a Republican, was a member of the Sixty-second, Sixty-fifth and Sixty-sixth General Assemblies, representing Cherokee, Plymouth and Woodbury Counties. He passed away on January 17, 1976, and is survived by his widow; a daughter, Mrs. Gary (Mary) Myers of Grand Blanc, Michigan; a son, the Reverend Dean Fullerton of Des Moines; and a step-daughter, Mrs. Herbert Rasmussen of Cushing, Iowa.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Sixty-sixth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the late Honorable Bert Fullerton, the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful and useful public servant, and the House by this resolution would express its appreciation of his service, and tender its sympathy to the members of the family.
