

acted as a high school basketball coach. In 1929 he engaged in farming and followed this vocation for the remaining 29 years of his life.

He was a member of the Methodist church, Masonic lodge, Eastern Star and American Legion; also was a former member of the school board, township clerk, and a member of the executive board of the American Legion. Mr. Chambers was a veteran of World War I. In 1955 he was elected state representative from Pocahontas County and was re-elected in 1957, serving in the Fifty-sixth and Fifty-seventh sessions of the General Assembly.

Besides his widow, Earl L. Chambers is survived by his four children, Mrs. Isabelle Flanigan of Riverside, California, Mrs. Frances Measom of Azusa, California, Elwood of Santa Maria, California, and Garland of Rialto, California.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-eighth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable Earl L. Chambers, the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful, useful servant, and the House, by this resolution, would express its appreciation of his service, and tender its sympathy to the members of his family.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

LEWIS O. CLARK

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Lewis O. Clark, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Lewis Oscar Clark was born in a log house three miles east and one-half mile north of Randolph in Fremont county, June 19, 1868, the son of Mary E. and Oscar A. Clark.

He attended the country school at what was called Hard Scrabble. After a year in the public school at Tabor, he entered the Western Normal College at Shenandoah, Iowa, where he graduated with the highest honors in his class. He taught country school one year.

He was married in 1889 to Mary Walker, and to this union four children were born, all of whom have preceded him in death. He lived on a farm until 1903, when he and his wife moved to Randolph, where she later passed away.

He married Hazel Ellis of Randolph, and to this union were born three daughters.

Mr. Clark was a former member of the board of supervisors; had been a councilman, school director, secretary of the school board, and served in the Forty-third General Assembly from Fremont County. He was the proud owner of a fifty year certificate in Crown Lodge A.F. and A.M. of Randolph. He donated liberally to building the Presbyterian and Methodist churches in Randolph.

He was a farmer at heart, interested in his own farms and all farm operations. He was a very generous man and helped many people get their start in life.

Mr. Clark passed away February 9, 1959 at Randolph. He is survived by his widow, Hazel, and three daughters, Luanne, Colleen and Emily Joan Clark of Randolph.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-eighth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable Lewis O. Clark, the people of Fremont county and the entire State of Iowa have sustained a great loss, and the House expresses its appreciation of his character and public service and tenders, by this resolution, its sincere and heartfelt sympathy to his family in their sorrow.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

ROSCOE E. GREENWOOD,
CONRAD OSSIAN,
Committee.

FOREST DAVIS

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Forest Davis, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Forest Davis was born March 28, 1879, in Wayne county, Iowa, and passed away January 27, 1958, at the age of 79 years.

He was the son of L. T. Davis, one of the pioneer settlers of Wayne county and was educated in rural schools. He taught in public schools for two years and farmed a few years, then entered Chicago Veterinary College, graduating in 1912. He located at Moulton, Iowa, where he practiced his profession, together with farming, real estate, and insurance. He was a former Postmaster at Moulton.

Mr. Davis was married in 1902 to Nora A. Thatcher of Wayne county. To this union three daughters were born, Cleo, Wilma and Lois.

He was elected to represent Appanoose county in the Iowa House of Representatives and served in the Forty-fifth and Forty-sixth sessions.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-eighth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable Forest Davis, the state has lost an honored citizen, and the House by this resolution would express its appreciation of his service, and tender its sympathy to the members of his family.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

KENNETH E. OWEN,
REED CASEY,
WILLIAM J. COFFMAN,
