

LAWRENCE A. FALVEY

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Lawrence A. Falvey begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Lawrence A. Falvey was born in Monroe County, Albia, Iowa, May 27, 1901, the eldest son of Michael and Ellen Falvey. He passed away in Albia on July 23, 1957, at the age of fifty-six years.

Mr. Falvey was educated in the Albia schools, attended St. Ambrose College in Davenport, and was graduated from the State University of Iowa in 1925. While a student at the State University of Iowa he was elected to the scholastic honorary fraternity of Phi Beta Kappa. In this same year he married the former Katherine Ann Mull of Muscatine, Iowa, who survives him.

Mr. Falvey was President of the First Iowa State Bank of Albia and a partner in the Falvey Brothers lumber yard and farm. He was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Holy Name Society, Knights of Columbus, Albia Chamber of Commerce, Monroe County Farm Bureau, and past president of both the Albia Rotary Club and the Albia Country Club. Most of his life was spent in civic and community affairs, and even at the time of his death he was formulating plans to attend a meeting of the Interstate Cooperation Committee in Cleveland.

Lawrence A. Falvey, a Democrat, served in the Fifty-fifth, Fifty-sixth and Fifty-seventh sessions of the General Assembly. He was the second Falvey to serve in the House of Representatives; his father, Michael (Mike) Falvey, having been a member of the Forty-fifth, Forty-fifth Extra, Forty-sixth and Forty-sixth Extra sessions of the General Assembly. Both gentlemen had the distinction of being the only Democrat to serve as a committee chairman during the sessions they served in the House of Representatives.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-eighth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable Lawrence A. Falvey, the people of Monroe county and the entire State of Iowa have lost an honored citizen and a faithful, useful public servant, and the House, by this resolution, would express its appreciation of his service, and tender its sincere and heartfelt sympathy to the members of his family.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the wife of the deceased.

HOWARD C. REPERT, JR.,
W. J. JOHANNES,
SCOTT SWISHER,
Committee.

JAMES D. FLEMING

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable James D. Fleming, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

James D. Fleming was born September 26, 1884, of Scotch parentage. His entire life was spent in Stockholm township, Crawford County, Iowa, where he owned and operated a two hundred acre farm. He received his early education in the rural schools, attended and graduated from the Denison Normal College in 1907. He taught school for three years and was actively engaged in farming since then.

In August, 1913, he was married to Lillie I. Carlson and to this union were born two daughters and one son, Ruth Mae, Charlotte Marie and Paul James. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church at Denison, Iowa.

Mr. Fleming took active part in matters of public interest in his home community. He was assessor and road superintendent for a number of years; he was a member of the school board; President of the Farmers Elevator at Deloit; first Chairman of the Corn Hog Committee; in AAA from 1934 to 1937; Secretary of Agriculture Conservation Board from 1937 to 1944; County Treasurer from 1948 to 1950; Crawford County Supervisor from 1950 to 1956; President of Crawford County Farm Bureau; and also Treasurer of Crawford County Fair Association. He was elected to the Iowa House of Representatives from Crawford county and served in the Forty-first, Forty-second and Forty-second Extra sessions of the General Assembly.

Mr. Fleming passed away on Friday, March 9, 1957, at St. Joseph Hospital in Sioux City, Iowa, and he is survived by his wife and children: Ruth Mae, Charlotte Fleming Missimer and Paul J. Fleming. Also surviving are four grandchildren, three sisters and one brother.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-eighth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable James D. Fleming, the people of Crawford County and the entire State of Iowa have sustained a great loss, and the House expresses its appreciation of his character and public service and tenders, by this resolution, its sincere and heartfelt sympathy to his family in their sorrow.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

HAROLD HOUSTON,
J. D. CURRIE,
ELROY MAULE,

Committee.

CHARLES GRANT GOOD

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Charles Grant Good begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Charles Grant Good, better known as C. G., or Grant Good, passed away at his home in Boone on April 15, 1957, after a short illness.

Mr. Good was a life-long resident of Boone county. At the close of the civil war, of which his father was a veteran, Mr. Good's parents moved to Boone county from Pennsylvania. He was born in a log cabin in the Pilot Mound vicinity on August 15, 1872, the son of John L. and Cassiah Good.

Mr. Good was educated in the local schools and attended Capital City Commercial College for two years.
